THREAT TO NIXON LAID TO PANTHE

But Inquiry Is Not Expected questioning and judicial interto Result in Charges

the life of President Nixon by here that, in such a case, one of the 13 Black Panthers must find that the defendant awaiting trial here on bombing had an actual intent at the conspiracy charges, but the time he wrote the letter to kill inquiry will probably not re-sult in the filing of charges, David H to have been set off by a speech made Wednesday by He contends it was "political rhetoric," and has challenged Panther who was released in $100,000 bail on March 26 San Francisco. after nearly a year's pretrial imprisonment.

which has been on the books it had made 337 arrests, with since the turn of the century 269 convictions, mostly for President's life a crime, ficials. whether or not there is an indecision charges.

Moore, who is also known as lems — mental illness, alcohol-day Dahruba, said he had ism, or instability. Their threats may be empty ones, but they hundred people near New York the law. one that stands in the way of Court clerks could not say let 'em," Mr. Moore said; and this lawyer, Gerald Lefcourt, Last Wednesday an 18-year-old said yesterday that he had called the Secret Service of fice in New York and offered in a letter to the produce Mr. Moore where to produce Mr. Moore where-President. ever the authorities wanted him if they bring charges used to suppress "political hyperbole"—statements in the heat of argument that sound threatening but do not really threaten.

The effect of the ruling was to open the law to further pretation

Last fall, in the case of a The Secret Service is investigating an alleged threat on vestigating an alleged threat on by stance Baker Mothe 2022 (1929) man who had written such a

David Hilliard, chief of staff a Justice Department source of the Black Panther party, is said yesterday. The investigation was said for making a threat like the

The Secret Service, the agency assigned to protect the Pres-The basis for the Federal in- ident, reported yesterday that quiry is a disputed statute— in the year that ended last June -that makes any threat to the threats against high elective of-

Most of the people who make tention to carry it out, but such threats, according to both leaves to the Government the Federal prosecutors and lawwhether to bring yers who become involved in the cases in the Federal court Asked about the speech, Mr. here, are people with prob-

our individual freedom, and in-cluding President Nixon." yesterday how many such cases there were in the Federal court "If they want to bust me, here now, but thre have been

Of the seven known cases, they bring charges four are pending—one man ar-The maximum punishment rested Feb. 11 is still in jail for threatening the life of the in lieu of $5,000 bail; two were President is a fine of $1,000 acquitted after trial; the com-Frestdent is a fine of $1,000 acquitted after that; the compand a prison term of five years plaint against another was disfered from the only one conmissed; and the only one conmissed; and the only one convicted was put on three years' last year upheld the law but probation, and ordered to seek cautioned that it could not be treatment for alcoholism.