NYTimes 429/70 p.3+

Appellate Court Denies Request For New Judge in Panther Trial

In a 4-to-0 decision, the Appellate Division refused yesterday to remove State Supreme Court Justice John M. Murtagh is at the presiding judge at the conspiracy trial of 16 Black Panthers.

Justice Murtagh is scheduled to begin pretrial hearings in the case Monday. The defendants ar eaccused of planning a terror campaign in which they were to bomb department court and the judiciary law and was "a reasonable expublic places.

Gerald B. Lefcourt, the law-yer for the accused, contended that Justice Murtagh — who is Courts in Manhattan and the widely regarded as a "no-non Bronx.

Gerald B. Lefcourt said that he conclusion, the Appella e Division said that there we stories and petitioners and conception make assonable associate to the state of the State Suprementation.

Mr. Lefcourt said that he conception of his or present the courts and the product of the State Suprementation.

Mr. Lefcourt said that he conception of his or present the state of the state of the state suprementation.

Mr. Lefcourt said that he conception that the conception that the constitution that his clients were being denied their constitution that his clients we