CLERK UNDER FIRE IN SIRHAN INQUIRY

Grand Jury Asserts

Special to The New York Times

investigation continues nere several pages from two photo-into the handling of evidence static copies of Sirhan's notein the assassination of Senator books, in which he had scrib-Robert F. Kennedy after grand bled "R.F.K. must die," were jury criticism of County Clerk missing. The entire copy of an-William G. Sharp for "misfea-other notebook is said to be sance" in management of trial missing.

visors ordered its own task was "totally unfounded." force this week to investigate notebooks were intact and were the "competency and adequa- in the hands of the California cy" of the clerk's office after Supreme Court, which is rereceiving a letter signed by viewing Sirhan's appeal of his Leo D. Epstein, foreman of the conviction and death sentence. grand jury, saying that some But Mr. Sharp added that evidence used to convict Sirhan photostatic copies of some of B. Sirhan was missing.

because "there is insufficient he is not required to retain.

evidence of a prosecutable crime." District Attorney Joseph P. Busch Jr. sought the grand jury inquiry when a question of evidence tampering arose during his investigation of alleged irregularities in the Some Evidence Is Missing, original ballistics study related to Senator Kennedy's death here from gunshot wounds on June 6, 1968.

Some Missing Pages

The grand jury letter to the Investigation continues here board of supervisors said that

Mr. Sharp said he welcomed the review of his office, and The County Board of Super-that the grand jury's criticism the notebooks were incomplete. No indictments were re-turned, Deputy District Attor-ney Richard W. Hecht said, to view the trial exhibits, which