Dear Phil,

On du Berrier, the answer is yes but the what is a question, for the possibility of their growing fast exists.

There are certain areas where perhaps his guard would go up fast. These, such as Cuba, you know, and he knows you do.

If you can bear to subject yourself to such a meeting, such awful irrationalities, perhaps he may have some ideas about Pinhan, Ray, and these two assassinations that would be helpful to at least hear, whether or not they could be comprehended. If you speak to him privately, does he know Dr. Fernando Penabaz, editor of Insight in the News, Miami, and/or Maj. Jose Duarte, and, for example, does he consider them responsible? Duarte assumed ~~responsibility~~ "ringia" - like posture in LA, about immediately, with the help of Strahan.

The more I think of it, the more I believe this is too far above and beyond the call.....But, if it is possible to learn from negative clues. If you do want to go, take a sedative first and do not make yourself conspicuous. I'd not ask him any questions publicly, only privately, and you do have the connection, having worked for his publisher.

Dear Hal, --I've only a moment to talk with you this morning, but this clip from yesterday's paper rather intrigues me. I think they might let me in...if I do get past the candyman's Sentries is there anything you'd like me to ask this guy in event he invites questions?

--In haste, but warmest regards,

Paul
