Kennedy-Era Watchword Is Changed

By Jack Anderson

A decade ago, John F. Kennedy aroused the spirit of sacrifice in America. "Ask not can do for your country."

Today the watchword in public is still asked to sacri- ary will be Richard Nixon. fice, to hold down wage demands, to wait for promised better times. But they are expected to ask not their leaders spirit, to make similar sacrifices.

George Romney, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, made a brave attempt to set an example by turning back 25 per cent of his salary. When he suggested that his fellow Cabinet officers do the same, however, he didn't get a single volunteer. Instead, the Cabinet members accepted a salary increase from $35,000 to $60,000.

President Nixon, whose own pay had been raised from $200,000, dispatched his chief lobbyist to Capitol Hill to seek an increase also in the presidential hold of his old friend, House allowance for each member, pension from $25,000 to Administration $60,000. Lobbyist Bryce Har-Chairman Sam Friedel (D-low slipped around to see Md.), who is in charge of the phone calls or 80,000 tele-

Speaker crease through the House. It is he could struggle along with during the session. now awaiting Senate action.

Harlow has spread the word what your country can do for that the President really you," he said, "ask what you wants the extra pension for pay. And never mind the limpoor Harry Truman. But at 86. Truman won't be around long Washington has changed. The to collect it. The real benefici-

Christmas Gifts

In the same Christmas "Old Jawn" a two-year lease ses, $3,000 a year for station- put Sweig on the payroll. ery. free mailing privileges, $700 extra for airmail themselves, House members and special delivery stamps, a $27,000-a-year assistant and a crease their stationery allow-$12,000-a-year secretary. They ance from $3,000 to $3,500 also talked about tossing in apiece. The extra allotment the use of a chauffeured gov- will cost the taxpayers as ernment limousine.

When the story leaked to the newspapers, the Speaker got the telephone and telegraph

John McCormack special resolution, McCormack graphed words—or a mixture out the airmail and special delivery stamps. He also thought his staff could get by on less ousine; his assistant could drive him around.

> Nor was McCormack's alter ego, Martin Sweig, now appealing a 21/2-year prison sentence, to be left out.

Sweig has been unable to House leaders also fix his own case, but he has ararranged a little going-away ranged to get back on the present for the retiring Mc- House payroll for a nominal Cormack. They cooked up a sum long enough to qualify resolution that would grant for a pension. His benefactor, Robert Leggett (R-Calif.) exon his present Boston office, plained to us that it was his $1,200 a year for office expen- own idea, not the Speaker's, to

> As a Christmas bonus for also voted this month to inmuch as $218,000 each session.

The House also beefed up Committee permitting an additional 2,500

who obligingly pushed the in- suggested magnanimously that of both-at public expense

Washington Expose

Wives' Allotments-Wives of American prisoners in North Vietnam have complained to us that their husbands didn't leave adequate allotments. When they went overseas, they expected to be home in a year. Now they can't get word to the Army. Navy or Air Force to increase the amount. The Defense Department advises us that an appeal can be made to the service secretary at the Pentagon. The secretaries are authorized to increase the allotments up to 100 per cent.

Savings-Hart Christmas Mankin, the General Services Administration's top lawyer, has a Christmas tradition that saves him postage and Christmas-card costs. He sends out greetings to his 126 employees on GSA stationery using his official postal frank. Mankin says this is a suitable way to express holiday wishes to his employees. But it is no gift to the taxpayers who pay for the mailing.

@ 1970, Bell-McClure Syndicate, Inc.