

Bombing Plot Charged to 13 Weathermen

DETROIT, July 23 (UPI). — Thirteen members of the radical Weatherman group — the "top and core leadership," according to the Justice Department — were indicted Thursday on charges of conspiring to commit assassinations and bombings in four U. S. cities.

A Detroit Federal grand jury handed down the indictments against the 13. The indictments followed an investigation growing out of a secret "war council" staged by Weatherman during a national four-day convention in Flint, Mich., last December.

The indictments cited bombing conspiracies in Detroit, Chicago, New York and Berkeley, Calif.

Attorney General John N. Mitchell said the Justice Department began its investigation after an explosion last March 6 destroyed a brownstone town house in New York in which three persons were killed.

THE 13 NAMED

Those named in the indictment were:

Mark William Rudd, 23, a leader in the Columbia University riots whose last known address was New York; Bernadine Rae Dohrn, 28, lately of Oak Park, Ill.; William Charles Ayres, 25, lately of Chicago; Kathie Boudin, 27, lately of Chicago; Cathlyn Platt Wilkerson, 25, lately of Chicago; Linda Evans, 23, of Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Dianne Marie Donghi, 21, lately of New York; Russell Todd Neufeld, 23, lately of Hempstead, N. Y.; Jane Spielman, 23, of New York; Ronald David Fliegelman, 26, lately of Wyncote, Pa.; Naomi Esther Jaffe, 27, New York; Robert Gaylord Burlingham, 24, Suffern, N. Y.; and Larry David Grathwohl, 23, whose last known address was Cincinnati, O.

SPLIT FROM SDS

It was the second major series of indictments against the group, which split from Students for a Democratic Society during a Chicago convention in June, 1969.

A Federal grand jury in Chicago indicted 12 members of Weatherman in April on charges of conspiracy and interstate travel to incite riots in that city last October. Only one of them, Miss Evans, has been apprehended.

The 13 accused and 15 other persons named as coconspirators here, the indictment said, intended to "use bombs, destructive devices and explosives to destroy police installations and other civic, business and educational buildings throughout the country and to kill and injure persons therein."

AT TOP LEVEL

In Washington, where the indictments were first announced, assistant attorney general Will R. Wilson, chief of the criminal division, said the persons named in the indictment are the "top and core leadership" of the Weatherman faction.

He said, "we expect to arrest some of them, but we will not probably get them all. I expect we will catch seven or eight, possibly ten."

INQUIRER 7/24/70