

10' H 43 - BRinguier:

Mr. Bringuier. And there is something that I want to show you too. I told to you about the training camp that were across the Lake Pontchartrain.

Mr. Liebeler. Yes.

Mr. Bringuier. (Producing newspaper.) At the beginning of August in the Diario Las Americas from Miami for September 4 -

Mr. Liebeler. For September 4, 1963?

Mr. Bringuier. That is right. (Indicating photograph.) This is the spy who was inside the training camp. The Christian Democratic Movement turned him over to the FBI, and the FBI was questioning him in Miami. ...

10H 43 - BRINGUIER:

Mr. Liebeler. It is an anti-Castro organization?

Mr. Bringuier. Yes; they were training Cubans over here to make a commando action against Castro, but they find out that there was a Castro spy inside the training camp, and they went back to Miami with the people and with him, and they turn him over to the FBI. I think that after that the leader for the Christian Democratic Movement - or that the FBI didn't find anything, because was not against the law to spy inside an anti-Castro organization. ///. I could not find any reason for Oswald to come to me and offer me his service to train Cubans in guerrilla warfare at the same moment when there was a secret anti-Castro training camp in New Orleans and a Castro spy was inside that training camp. ...

10H 35 - Bringuier:

Mr. Bringuier. ... Next thing is this: On August 2, 1963, I receive in my store - I have over there the office of the delegation too, the visit of two Cubans, who told me that they had already desert from one Anti-Castro training camp that was across Lake Pontchartrain here in New Orleans. Until that moment I did not know nothing about that Anti-Castro training campe here in the city, and they told me that that Anti-Castro training camp was a branch of the Christian Democratic Movement - that is another Anti-Castro organization - and they told me that they had the fear inside the training camp that there was a Castro agent inside that training camp.

A few days before, too, the police found here in New Orleans about 1 mile from that training camp a big lot of ammunition and weapons and all those things, ...

10H 44 - Bringuier:

Mr. Liebeler. Oswald came to you offering to assist in the military training of Cubans?

Mr. Bringuier. That is right.

Mr. Liebeler, At that time, there was, in fact, a training camp near New Orleans -

Mr. Bringuier. That is right.

Mr. Liebeler. For the training of people for military action against Castro?

Mr. Bringuier. Right.

Mr. Liebeler. And that was not public knowledge at that time?

Mr. Bringuier. That is right.

10H 48 - Bringuier:

Mr. Bringuier. ... I know about what is said in the paper. I know that they dismantle all the training camp here in New Orleans. They went back to Miami. I paid the trip for two of them to go back to Miami. Excuse me. I did not pay the trip, I collect some monies among some Cubans, and we paid the trip. I don't want to set something on the record that is not -

Mr. Liebeler. Does it say something about the letter in these newspaper storáes that you have referred me to?

Mr. Bringuier. Pardon?

Mr. Liebeler. Does it refer to the letter in these newspaper stories?

Mr. Bringuier. That is right, is covering the whole history about it (producing newspaper).

Mr. Liebeler. These newspaper stories are, as we have indicated, in the Diario Las Americas, issues of September 4, 1963, and September 6, 1963. Do you have copies of these or do you want to keep these?

Mr. Bringuier. I think they are the only onés we have.

Mr. Liebeler. Yes.
