Emory Brown, tests

This record is also provided as an illustration of the improper withholding of a Dallas FBI name.

This record does not say what kind of a suit Emory Brown filed. It was an FOIA suit at Newark.

It also reflects an attitude toward complying with FOIA requests, "without a lengthy review"

Re Bureau airtel to Newark and Dallas, 1/26/71.

Today, Supv. HENRY A. SCHUTZ, JR., SOG, telephonically contacted the Dallas Office and referred to reairtel with respect to the suit filed by EMORY L. BROWN, JR. vs. the Attorney General and the Director.

Supv. SCHUTZ stated that the Bureau desired the following information no later than 2/1 or 2/71; if we can come up with anything pertinent, it should be telephonically furnished to the Bureau immediately:

1. Indices search on EMORY L. BROWN, JR.
2. Specifically indicate from a review of our indices and files if BROWN has made any previous requests of the Dallas Office for any information regarding the Assassination.
3. If we can, without a lengthy review of our files, come up with any information on any of the items requested by him in the enclosures to reairtel, we should furnish it to the Bureau. SCHUTZ stated that a lengthy review of our files should not be undertaken, but if we knew where some of the information requested was, we should advise the Bureau of this.
