Authorities Doubt Rap Brown Report

The FBI, an attorney for Brown. None of the Washing- the county after failing to ap- ranged with three black conmissing black militant H. Rap ton dailies carried the story, pear for his trial in Howard gressmen, a lawyer and newscutor said yesterday that they ated. found no substance" to published reports that the 28year-old fugitive wants to sur- agency had informed the Balrender and stand trial on timore paper that it was invesarson and riot charges.

A Baltimore newspaper said in its Saturday editions that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was investigating a report carried in Match, a small-circulation, black-owned cial termed the reports "ridic-newspaper in Washington, ulous." that quoted Brown as saying he would like to come out of hiding and begin raising money for his defense.

Earlier in the week, the publisher of Match, Eugene N. Garner, had visited newsrooms of major Washington dailies distributing copies of his alleged conversation with that the black power advocate that he would come out of hidthe man he identified as was last reported to have fled ing if a meeting could be ar-

Brown and a Maryland prose- which could not be corrobor-

An FBI spokesman denied yesterday that the federal Match story. tigating the "There never was-nor will there be-any comment about any investigation," the spokesman said.

A Maryland state police offi-

Brown, who is charged with arson, rioting and inciting to riot in connection with civil disorders in Cambridge, Md., story, and a purported tran-in July, 1967, has not been script of his conversation with seen publicly since March of Brown, after a man named last year and is on the FBI's "Smith" arranged the conver-"Ten Most Wanted" List.

The FBI has maintained

County, Md.

According to the story in Match, Brown was riding in a was demolished by a bomb blast last March 9 near Bel Air, Md., killing Ralph Featherstone, 30, of Washington and Henry Payne, 26, of Covington, Ky. Both men were longtime associates of Brown.

When the car exploded, the Match story said, Brown abandoned the vehicle he was riding in and later caught a taxicab out of town.

Garner said he printed the script of his conversation with

Garner said Brown told him

sation.

men.

Garner also said that he had asked Assistant U.S. Attorney car in front of the one that Harold J. Sullivan to handle the arrangements. Sullivan refused to confirm or deny that statement.

> According to Garner, he was put in touch with Brown just after his paper reprinted an article from a Howard County weekly in which Howard County State's Attorney Richard J. Kinlein stated that the arson charge against Brown had been "fabricated" to get the FBI involved in the case.

Kinlein's comments were printed in many large-circulation newspapers, none of which claims to have been contacted by Brown.

William Kunstler, Brown's attorney, said in a telephone interview yesterday that he doubts the Match report that his client wants to surrender. "My own feeling is that those reports are untrue," Kunstler said.

Kinlein, the Howard County prosecutor, said he also doubted the Match story.