PM 4/29/70

Rap Brown Trial to Reopen Monday

uled to begin Monday in the Howard County Circuit Court, Judge James Macgill said yesterday.

Brown's attorneys, seeking to have the trial moved from the state to the federal courts, have been rebuffed on five separate occasions-most recently on Monday by a panel of the 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Rap Brown has been resched- action would not necessarily Macgill's court in Ellicott City presence will be required. It postpone the proceedings in from Harford County, where it Brown does not appear, his the state courts. Defense law- had been transferred earlier bond can be forfeited and a yers said yesterday they have from Cambridge, in Dorches- warrant issued for his arrest. not decided whether to seek ter County. Brown is charged another delay in the trial.

> counted for since March 7, two speech he gave in Cambridge for contempt of court on Mondays before he would have in July, 1967. been due to appear in court to stand trial. The case was sub- $10,000 bond and has not been conspiracy trial before Fedsequently postponed after an required to appear in court eral Judge Julius Hoffman

The arson-riot trial of H. |nical possibility, but such an The tiral was later moved to |Monday, as scheduled, his

William with arson and incitement to Brown's chief counsel, wa Brown, 26, has been unac- riot in connection with a scheduled to begin a jail term day-arising out of his de The trial was later moved to fense of the 'Chicago 7' at the A further appeal, to the U.S. explosion killed two of for pretrial matters. But if The sentence, however, has Supreme Court, is still a tech- Brown's friends.