Dear Ron,

If you have not just lost a client, possibly a friend and brother, he, at least, has lost friends, brothers and some of the little freedom that remained for him.

We all spring from mixed cultures. But I have none of the Judenrat in me, for I am of the Maccabees. If, among your clients or brothers, you have those of similar blood, and if their blood is hot enough, I can help them. If you do not, I can, on short notice, from what I have already collected, give you a thorough exposure of the official contrivances about the bombing.

Remember, I have made a study of the special semantics of the FBI. And I have done a book on the separate but also special semantics of the office of the Maryland medical examiner (whose has since acknowledged to me, in writing, that he has destroyed evidence in that case).

Between them, what these say is that Featherstone was not, consciously and deliberately, "transporting" the device that killed him.

I wish I could believe that the able black brothers would get together on this and do what can be done now. It is already a week late.

I can believe that a simple, obvious investigation at Bel Air could supply the few missing bits for close to a complete expose. But, in this week, the police may have turned off all or most of those who have the missing information.

If nobody would publish it, I do not believe the time has come when nobody would publicize it.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
