

MAE BRUSSELL REPLIES

'CONSPIRACY' IS AN UNDERSTATEMENT

For Rex Weiner:
from Mae Brussell I challenge Brussell and/or Kressner to answer these arguments, not with a mess of giggling factoids, names, places, coincidences that may or may not be proved, but with precise answers to the points advanced in the essay. (7-26-74)

Dear Rex,

Your essay includes misinterpretations of what I have published. There are quotation marks around your own words which were never mine. It is confusing as to whether you want me to answer what I really said, or what you "think" I said.
Even "hugling factoids" grow to become big facts.

1. Are you under the assumption that if my theories about conspiracies and assassinations are correct, the only alternative is to give up? Is violence the only alternative to fascism?

There are other alternatives than giving up and accepting a police state.
There are degrees of fascism in spite of constant murders and schemes against the people, the Watergate impeachment is proceeding. Congress is limping along.

Some of the worst criminals against humanity are now being deposed, stripped of their power, law degrees, and positions to oppress.
Education is an alternative to wealth and indifference.
None of the organized resistance movements have realistically attacked the source of power. They

I never said that "all" plane hijackings involved military provocateurs. Many of the hijackings, like many recent kidnappings, involved the CIA and FBI. The circumstances were mysterious, involving well trained Special Forces agents. Some pilots were murdered quickly, like Donald De-Preze. There is every reason to believe this situation was escalated and created for the purpose of controlling entries into airplanes.

3. Inherent in Brussell's theory is the notion that violence per se is a discreditable tactic, and therefore, those who use it must be trying to smear the Left.
The numbers of articles I have written for publication are two.
In addition, I gave two interviews that have been published.

Nowhere in those four articles does the subject of violence appear.
Each act of violence must be judged separately.
Acts of violence by the Left, (whoever you call the Left, because that is vague in my mind today), discredit valuable and authentic movements for social change, if other methods than violence could have been used to achieve more lasting results.
Violence must only be applied for purposes of self-defense, and only when absolutely necessary.
The "Left" that you speak about, wherever they are, have not disciplined themselves with all the facts available that could remove the military-intelligence from their usurped power.

Exposure of criminals in public office, or in positions of authority, is not the same as actually murdering them.

I sincerely believe that violence of any sort -- to shoot any of the men listed above -- would not have been as effective as exposing them as conspirators and publicly removing them from power over our lives.
4. "Action, curiously enough, is something Mae Brussell rarely talks about. She never suggests what concretely can be done." Exposures of government murders and conspiracies are not always accompanied by suggested courses of action.

Daniel Ellsberg delivered the Pentagon Papers to the printers.
He never told us how to stop the war.
Ron Ridenour diverged the Mai Lai Massacres. He never wrote in that same article how to eliminate atrocities.

Woodward and Bernstein exposed White House participation in the Watergate Affair. They did-not suggest how to stop intelligence activities by public officials.
Since when is it necessary to offer solutions in the same article that illustrates social or political problems?

For ten years I have researched political assassinations and conspirators. It was only after eight years of constant work, when I was absolutely sure of my evidence, that I even submitted, or attempted to give, any single publisher an article.
My first article, written three weeks after the Watergate arrests, July 11, 1972, was a comprehensive analysis of what took place only weeks before. What was illustrated was how Nixon came to power, as a selected clandestine agent, involved by military-intelli-

Proposed new cabinet in Calif. to combine Military, Department of Corrections, and all Calif. Law Enforcement into one Agency.
Research Behavior Center, Boulder, North Carolina.
In addition to listing groups the Left should protest and expose, I listed on pages 25-26, the most important persons to be removed from public office in order to avoid further fascism and conspiracies. This list included: Richard Nixon
Spiro Agnew
Chief Justice, Warren Burger
General Alexander Haig
Maj. General John C. Bennett Fred Buzhardt, Counsel for the President
Clarence Kelley, FBI
William Colby, CIA James Schlesinger, then head of the CIA.

Furthermore, I suggested and hoped my readers would pressure the Senate Select committee to call Martin Mitchell, Louis Tack-wood, Tom Charles Huston, and William Sullivan as witnesses. The testimony from these four persons would help halt fascism and political assassinations.
John Mitchell's links with Nazi admirers Robert Mariani, and G.
Gordon Liddy, were dangerously applied to the Left for five years.
Their future plans included kidnappings, poisonings, and false imprisonment. The Justice Department under Mitchell was renowned for inquisition-style grand juries headed by Guy Godwin and Marian, as well as Jerris Leonard and the LEAA.
Martin Mitchell could have explained their use of bodily force, inquiry, and kidnapping to include said and added your own quotation marks. The interview in the Barb, my only published views of the SLA, does not use that language or imply such thoughts. They are far from my head.

Our most valuable citizens today are Daniel Ellsberg, Louis Tackwood, Frank Martinez, Larry Shears, Victor Marchetti, Phillip Albee, Preston Gagliardi, Kenneth Littlejohn, James Frankberry and a team of others, sacrificing and endangering their lives to give insights into truths about assas-inations, conspiracies, and in essentials. They all worked for the police, CIA, or the military.
The Left and radical groups are non-existent in terms of energy and interest to support persons divulging exposures about public officials and agencies.
If they were to rally around these men, and become actively educated on ways to move, violent and bloody revolutions might be avoided.

8. "The inability to trust and work together is exactly what the FTB wants ... so it is reasonable to say that if anyone is working for the FTB, if anyone is a partner of the party of the Government, it is Mae Brussell."
The Left, like the Democratic Party, is a total failure in terms of analyzing, and moving together, to cut off the sources of power, from assassins and conspirators.
Do not blame me if the Left is not working together.
Even the nine members of the SLA couldn't help each other, and I was not there to guide them.
William and Emily Martin, Allegedly with Pally Hebert, are refugees.

...the multi-faceted criminals and murderers inside the White House and Justice Department. Even now there is silence while these agents get charged with the small crimes of "prejary" or "conspiracy to obstruct justice." French resistance movements didn't accept Adolf Hitler. Greek resistance forced the military junta, after seven years, to resign. This bloodless coup was accomplished because the Greek people recognized the enemy and fought harder to challenge their activities.

Two years ago Andreas G. Papandreu, former candidate for the liberal Center Union Government in Greece, wrote me a letter. Elections had been canceled in 1967. Papandreu was thrown into prison, then allowed to live in Canada. Papandreu appreciated my now connecting the Watergate conspirators to the same individuals that brought fascism to his country.

"I am overwhelmed by the amount of work you have done, and the documentation you bring to support your thesis. I have tried myself for a long time to bring out the conspiratorial aspects of the Greek coup (American coup) of 1967. And just now, six years later, does it seem that people are beginning to understand how it happened that Greece went into a dictatorship.

Your work is tremendously important. You have understood the framework in which these events took place, but more than that, you have dug out the facts.

Today Greece is facing the fair political prisoners, bringing about an elected government, returning artists and musicians. These are the kind of "tactics" your kind can't appreciate. We must depose our military-intelligence government in the same manner Greece has moved their military-intelligence agencies look over the US Presidency in a coup of Oct. 11, 1963. Why hasn't the left moved against this taking away our rights to education, employment, housing, health care, and social needs.

manipulated elections since 1960. their lofty positions today. All the evidence exists. People are not taking advantage of it. Evette J. Younger, Attorney General of California, is involved by name in a lawsuit as covering the assassination of Sen. Robert Kennedy and his cohorts, such as Raymond Pooner, Deputy as Raymond Pooner, Deputy of being behind countless conspiracies to frame innocent men who should be freed as political prisoners. Instead of using Watergate exposure type methods to remove criminals, they ran for elected offices, as if none of this is taking place. The Left allows this to happen.

Will the Left accept Gerald Ford now, and then take up arms later? Why the bloodshed years from now? Ford is part of the CIA-DIA coverup following the murder of President John F. Kennedy. Warren Commission Hearings and minutes of the meetings prove he helped cover up the truth. How can the Left allow Admiral Ford of Navy Intelligence to become Fresh-grad within a few months or a year, without striking out with facts and ammunition of his complicity in crimes?

A few pieces of scotch tape and a handful of men inside the Democratic Headquarters removed John Mitchell, Richard Nixon, Spiro Agnew, Robert Mandrian, G. Gordon Liddy, E. Howard Hunt, Robert Haltemann, John Earl Rabinovich, and Secrett, Herbert Kahnbach, Frank Sturgis, Bernard Barker, Patrick Gray, William Sullivan, Fred LaRue, Charles Colson, James McCord, Jeb Magruder, John Connally, Ed Reineke, and a bunch of others, without one drop of blood being shed.

That is the kind of non-violent action I enjoy. These men are war criminals, Nazis, conspirators, and rodents eating away the Constitution.

The same non-violent revolution should remove Evette Younger, Ronald Reagan, Roy Ask, William Colby, and a parade of other names. They, too, participated in taking away our rights to education, employment, housing, health care, and social needs.

House secret team in 1971 and exposed it. His knowledge of links from the White House to the LAMP could have avoided the SLA and the six violent deaths that followed three years later.

William Sullivan is allegedly the force behind every President's power comes from a working liaison between the Defense Intelligence Agency and the CIA-FBI, their role in political assassinations.

Tom Charles Huston is a front for the Pentagon Plumbers. His testimony could have warned of a dangerous unit, Defense Investigative Service, formed by Nixon and the military-intelligence in October 1972.

The charge that I don't offer "suggestions" is unfounded. There is enough ammunition in the second article to attack illegal war criminals, appointed as public servants, and send them all to jail.

5. "Because even if it's true, the SLA is a fake set-up, it doesn't mean the next group to spring up and wage guerrilla warfare is also a patsy."

"There is nothing in my Berkeley Barb interview, April 19, 1974, to suggest that legitimate radical organizations do not exist or never will exist.

6. "If the SLA people are discredited because, by being new-comers to the Left they haven't earned our trust, then perhaps we should only trust leftist veterans."

The SLA is not discredited because some members were "new" until their death, when they became heroes, the SLA were rejected and suspected by genuine radicals as being possible police provocateurs. Nobody approved of their tactics.

My answer to your SLA arguments are all in the new Realist, a 45 page article entitled "Why or Patricia Hearst Kidnapped?" or How Do You Tell a CIA Espionage Plot from a Radical Terrorist, Guerilla Army?

7. "Once a pig, always a pig." Your references to Cinnque being a police agent and your "source" quote, are your own words. I did not say that you were a army" returning to war six other comrades of their losses, and possible identification by police agencies, where did they go? Patsy Emily, and William spent twelve hours driving around the town, attending a drive-in movie, and cruising the Hollywood Hills.

How can the Left work together and trust each other, when it's isolated members couldn't work as a team and help notify or evaluate their own friends at a time of possible danger?

How can the Left combine energy today to recognize their common enemies in Washington, D.C., in Sacramento, Los Angeles, Santa Cruz, San Francisco, or Berkeley? How can they survive to plan courses of action, or speak of armed resistance, when they haven't spent time studying alternatives that remain to effect changes with less pain?

My purpose has never been to disrupt the Left.

At a time when I am reaching more people through my articles, college class on Assassinations and Conspiracies, and radio program for three years (it is now going across the country to many stations), it is reasonable to assume that your possible purpose is to discredit my conclusions and suggestions for change, because I am reaching too many people.

Maybe you want to give the illusion I am separating the "Left" for the simple reason that more persons, young and old, are listening to me today and taking action.

How do we know you are not the agent provocateur, using a feeble method of false quotations and illogical assumptions, hoping to confuse otherwise intelligent people who saw through your article without any difficulty.

Best wishes.. Mae

P.S. Have you checked out that "one room treatment center" at Travis Air Force Base? Located within 82 secret acres, there is a new $105 million hospital which, at the present time, is too controversial" to discuss. Do you suppose it will be used for Bar Mitzvah parties or rock concerts? (You might be taking your last breath of life, so...)

On pages 33-35 were listed agencies of the Government that were created by military-intelligence for purposes of genocide and repressions. They should all be investigated and dismantled immediately. These included:

- Office of Management Budget,
- Office of Emergency Service,
- Inter-Division Information Unit, IDIU, a cover for domestic spying that puts the White House plumb-ers to shame.

-DALE Drug and Law Enforcement Agency

UCLA Institute to Study the Causes of Violent Behavior.

ENSKIDS' National Security Council, USA domestic spying unit, Alascadero, Calif. and Lister Unit, Vercville, Calif. Institutions practicing illegal electrode implantations, psycho-surgery, drug experiments, castrations, and electro-shock mind alterations.

Atlanta Treatment Center, N.Y. State

N.Y. State Center for Federal Prisons, Springdale, Miss.

...the multi-faceted criminals and murderers inside the White House and Justice Department. Even now there is silence while these agents get charged with the small crimes of "prejary" or "conspiracy to obstruct justice." French resistance movements didn't accept Adolf Hitler. Greek resistance forced the military junta, after seven years, to resign. This bloodless coup was accomplished because the Greek people recognized the enemy and fought harder to challenge their activities.

Two years ago Andreas G. Papandreu, former candidate for the liberal Center Union Government in Greece, wrote me a letter. Elections had been canceled in 1967. Papandreu was thrown into prison, then allowed to live in Canada. Papandreu appreciated my now connecting the Watergate conspirators to the same individuals that brought fascism to his country.

"I am overwhelmed by the amount of work you have done, and the documentation you bring to support your thesis. I have tried myself for a long time to bring out the conspiratorial aspects of the Greek coup (American coup) of 1967. And just now, six years later, does it seem that people are beginning to understand how it happened that Greece went into a dictatorship.

Your work is tremendously important. You have understood the framework in which these events took place, but more than that, you have dug out the facts.

Today Greece is facing the fair political prisoners, bringing about an elected government, returning artists and musicians. These are the kind of "tactics" your kind can't appreciate. We must depose our military-intelligence government in the same manner Greece has moved their military-intelligence agencies look over the US Presidency in a coup of Oct. 11, 1963. Why hasn't the left moved against this taking away our rights to education, employment, housing, health care, and social needs.