Bugging Charge
TALLAHASSEE, Fla.
The president of the Florida Senate said his office and Senate said his office state the offices of six other state senators were targets of illesenators bugging attempts during a recent legislative session.
Though Senate President Mallory Horne declined to identify the other clined to identify the other senators involved in senators involved in senators bugging attempt,
bugging attempt,
were the chairmen of most of my major committees."