Past 7/27/66

U.S. Takes No Action In Snooping on Nader

By Morton Mintz Washington Post Staff Writer

concluded that criminal prose- Roche testified that the incution is not warranted in the quiry into Nader and his af-Ralph Nader-General Motors fairs—of which he had not snooping case.

Additional investigation ogized—was undertaken for "would provide no useful function," Assistant Attorney General Fred M. Vinson Jr. said in a letter to Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff (D-Conn.).

whose targets of criticism have determine Nader's connection whose targets of the land the land testified the letter from Vinson, in February before Ribicoff's dated June 1, was in response dated June 1, was in response to an inquiry from Ribicoff dated March 8 and is an experience, hired by GM through a ord of the hearing.

mittee held a hearing to find GM lawyer. out, as Ribicoff put it, if "Does he drink?" she asked there had been a violation of about Nader, "He has nervous he law making it "a crime to habit of sniffing or else he had preumonia on the day of his

The Justice Department has GM President James M. known, and for which he apol-

GM's position was that the Nader is the author-lawyer investigation was instituted to middleman, had tried to check "all facets" of Nader's life, including "his politics, his marital status, his friends, his women, boys, etc."

On March 22 the Subcom-On, from Eileen Murphy, a before a congressional compress conference Jan. 6, 1965 mittee."