THE LEW LORK THRES, AL

2, 1906.

Use of Listening Devices

Hoover and Kennedy Trade New Charges on F.B.I.

... By FRED P. GRAHAM

Special to The New York Times WASHINGTON, Dec. 11-J. Edgar Hoover and Robert F. Kennedy made new charges today in their dispute over the responsibility for electronic eavesdropping by Federal agents during President Kennedy's Administration.

Mr. Hoover, director of the Mr. Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investiga-tion, branded as "absolutely in-conceivable" Mr. Kennedy's "statement yesterday that he had not known about all the bureau's eavesdropping when he was Attorney General.

ne was Attorney General. Mr. Kennedy, now the junior Senator from New York, re-plied in a statement that his lack of knowledge of the sur-veillance by the F.B.I. "may seem "inconceivable" to Mr. Hoover," but "it is nonetheless true."

The statement continued: "The statement continued: "The first time I became aware of these eavesdropping practices was when they were described in the press in con-nection with the Las Vegas indered it ceased. It is curious that Mr. Hoover does not recall this."

2 Occasions Recalled Mr. Kennedy said that on two occasions during his tenure as Attorney General he had listened to what appeared to have been recorded conversations obtained in organized crime investigations. He said there had been no indication that they had been obtained illegally or that Federal agents had obtained them.

Spokesmen in Mr. Kennedy's office have told newsmen of reports that Mr. Hoover may produce evidence that Mr. Kennedy listened to tapes of conversa-tions picked up by electronic devices in Chicago and New York. "Although. Mr. Hoover says that this activity was intensi-fied while I was Attorney Gen-eral and implied that we dis-cussed it, the fact is that he never discussed this highly important matter with me, and no evidence exists supporting his recollection that we did," Mr.

Kennedy said. "Indeed, there is no indication that Mr. Hoover ever asked me that Mr. Hoover ever asked me for authorization for any single bugging device, in Las Vegas, New York, Washington or any-where else."

He accused Mr. Hoover of "selectively making document public" and challenged him to make his entire file available, including information on wheth-er any previous Attorneys Gen-eral "were as uninformed as I was."

Document With Letter The public dispute was touched off yesterday when Represent-ative H. R. Gross, Republican of Iowa, released a letter from Mr. Hoover in which he said the bureau's eavesdropping had been done with the knowledge, approval and encouragement of

Mr. Kennedy. The Hoover letter was accompanied by a document dated Aug. 17, 1961, which discussed of the events. In yesterday's charges, Mr. Kennedy's office released a letter to Mr. Kennedy from to a superior, a man identified Courtney A. Evans, the assistant director of the F.B.I. who had July 7, 1961. acted as liaison between Mr. It said: Nevada, or anywhere erse. Today Mr. Hoover released a memorandum from Mr. Evans between Mr. It said: Nevada, or anywhere erse. Today Mr. Hoover released a able information might be ex-pected. "The strong objections to the utilization of telephone taps as contrasted to microphone sur-veillance were stressed. "The Attorney General stated the use of hidden microphones in internal security and major refine cases and bore the Ken-nedy signature. In today's lexchange, Mr. Hoover produced another docu-use, specific location or other any time backed Mr. Kennedy's version of the events. In yesterday's charges, Mr. Today Mr. Hoover released a able information might be ex-

. Lan

Attorney General. Mr. Evans's letter, dated Feb. 17, 1966, noted the distinction between wiretaps, which are used to intercept telephone. Referring to the bugs, he said: "I did not discuss the use of "I did not discuss" I did not discuss" the use of "I did not discuss"

Hoover cited this document and another by Mr. Evans that ac-tompanied the Kennedy docu-ment of Aug. 17, 1961, as proof that "the F.B.I's use of micro-phone and wiretap surveillance was known to and approved by Mr. Kennedy." plaining that an honest police captain had been appointed.
Mr. Kennedy."
Mr. Kennedy."
Mr. Kennedy."
Mr. Kennedy replied that "I Mr. Hundley said. He said that believe Mr. Evans was telling there had been nothing to sugset that the tape might have been illegally obtained.
He also Heard Tape
William G. Hundley, chief of the Justice Department's organized crime section under Mr. Kennedy and now assistant to Commissioner Pete Rozelle of planted devices of questionable the National Football League, said in an interview that he Mational Football League, said in an interview that he Mational Football League, said in an interview that here the order of a conversation was played in Mr. Kennedys'
"I never found that that's not true."

"No explanation was made as to how the tape was obtained REMEMBER THE NEEDIEST!