THE WASHINGTON POST Friday, July 10, 1964 A19

Army Issues Strict Curbs on MPs To Bar Abuses in Lie Detectors' Use

By Fred S. Hoffman Associated Press

The Army has laid down committee.

police investigators.

tigators from taking advantage of a person who may be listed were these: tired, upset, ill or otherwise not at his best.

It also forbids deceptive, such as investiga-tors wearing white coats that tion. might make them look like doctors.

well beyond a Defense De-partment order intended to safeguard a person's consti-• "No person will be ex-

Congress and has been in- be addicted to drugs or marvestigated by a House sub- ijuana."

Among the restrictions not subject a person to anything prolonged questioning just be-

· Such an examination "will not be conducted when The Army regulation goes it is apparent that the subject

tutional and legal rights when confronted by a lie detector. tionally upset, intoxicated, The use of lie detectors by under the influence of a sed-Government agencies has ative, or who is known to come under sharp attack in have a mental disorder or to

· A test may not be held strict regulations designed to The Army order says that while the subject is "experi-encing physical discomfort physical discomfort prevent any abuses in the use no lie detector test will be of significant magnitude or of lie detectors by military given without the express while possessing physical approval of the base provost disabilities which, by them-An unpublicized Army or-der bars MP criminal inves-tigators from taking advan-

 An examiner will confine his test questions to matters · Criminal investigators will pertinent to the offense being to probed.