Dod 9/2/66

Jolt for Obscene Callers Devised by Phone Firm

RICHMOND, Sept. 24 (AP) He said prosecution is left A spokesman for the Chesa to the victims and to police, peake & Potomac Telephone although the Company will co of Virginia says his firm provide information for the Co. of Virginia says his tirm provide information for the now has improved weapons prosecutions, and a special squad to deal. Virginia law provides maximith obscene, harassing or mum penalties of $1000 fine threatening telephone calls. and a year in jail, or both, for Robert E. Heltzel, Richmond making abusive calls, he said.

quate reasons.

Robert E. Heltzel, Richmond making abusive calls, he said manager for the C&P, says one of the weapons is a mechasism that keeps the caller's time open to allow more time for tracing the origin of the call. (AP)—A $22.3 million order Heltzel said the Company lor 18 flying crane helicopters also can use equipment that has been awarded to the records all calls from any par. records all calls from any par Sikorsky Aircraft Division of ticular number as well as the United Aircraft Corp. at Stratdate, time and number called, ford, Conn., the Army Avia provided the victim gives ade-tion Materiel Command announced today.