

308 caliber Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, serial number [redacted] left side.

308 caliber cartridge of Western Cartridge Co. chamber of CE 139 rifle.

FIGURE 5.--Damaged CE 135 windshield removed from the Presidential limousine, front view.

C.E. 399 8/23/78

FIGURE 6A. CE 399, the fired 6.5-millimeter caliber full metal-jacketed bullet found on a stretcher in the emergency area of Parkland Memorial Hospital, side view.

HSCA VII

FIGURE 6B.—CE 399, the fired 6.5-millimeter caliber full metal-jacketed bullet found on a stretcher in the emergency area of Parkland Memorial Hospital, view of the base portion, showing distortion.

FIGURE 7.—CE 542, a 6.5-millimeter caliber Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, serial No. UC 5209, purchased by the FBI for comparison purposes.

FIGURE 8A.—CE 543, one of three expended bullets of Western Cartridge Co. manufacture, recovered from the Texas School Book Depository, side view.

FIGURE 8B.—CE 543, one of three expended bullets of Western Cartridge Co. manufacture, recovered from the Texas School Book Depository, top view.