

2/22/70 - new opening, but only slight change
Again, a current issue in his own meaningless words, "The Pollution Revolution" Again he is trying to take a current issue & make it look like his & he is in proper clothes fired down. Actor Bill Buckley is his first "expert" Expert? Then a Mr. Grossman
These segments ~~of~~ taped out of studio, in different places, while he was wearing different clothes Rehash of newspapers. Then Linda Burt, a TV man - another "expert". Burt has one solution - put a "sign" on a guys home saying "I am a polluter." With a bit of typical a subject he is more boring & more un-imaginative than his usual boring & un-imaginative self Or he open second half with "Western Regional Managers of General Motors" Thomas Pond? He had style making it look better than reality.
