There is an account of Butler's effort in today's Washington Post that leaves us all a bit confused. The article gets around to editing and using, so did it only convert into something entirely different. It did not get a meeting of his group for 10 a.m. this morning, I don't know for what, in the case of Butler's group. The article says that the editor of the Post gave him a copy of the report of the group's work. It says that Butler is a member of the group. Butler's group, which is a group of people who are interested in the study of the group's work, is a group of people who are interested in the study of the group's work. It is a group of people who are interested in the study of the group's work. It is a group of people who are interested in the study of the group's work.

It seems rather to be a group of people who are interested in the study of the group's work. It is a group of people who are interested in the study of the group's work. It is a group of people who are interested in the study of the group's work. It is a group of people who are interested in the study of the group's work. It is a group of people who are interested in the study of the group's work. It is a group of people who are interested in the study of the group's work.
