

Dear Chip Chandler,

11/4/91

I appreciate your letter very much. Thanks.

I suppose because of the weekend your priority mail letter did not get here until today.

I have nerve deafness I did not inherit so I know what you mean. I have a friend with a more acute problem. He has a special phone that he can use with no trouble. It has a speaker and an amplifier/

In general you'll be welcome any time, depending on how I feel. I tire easily and there is much I still try to do when I'm not too tired.

Much about additional pictures has come to light since I finished Photo WW, about 5/67, but I know of no dependable published information on these other pictures.

This is a mark on our country's heritage but other than what I've done I do not know what can be done about it. Unless someone were to carry what I did farther, and that I fear would take a lifetime. It is one of the very blackest marks and the greatest of tragedies, in all aspects.

If we get a copy of Oswald in New Orleans, or if my wife has one hidden away of which I do not know, I'll let you know. I had a xerox master and we not can find it. If we do I'll be glad to provide xeroxes of it. If you can find one please feel free to do your own xeroxing.

Thanks and best wishes,

Right at this time we have a copy of OSWALD IN NEW ORLEANS. Occasionally we are able to procure one which we sell for $26.25, including postage and insurance. If you would like it, please let us know but PLEASE do not tell anyone where you obtained it because having to answer every letter such information would generate would take more time and energy than we can spend on it.

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I am writing to you today concerning our phone conversation of Saturday, 10-26-91. Again, I want to emphasize how much I appreciate your taking the time to talk to me on the two different occasions that I have called you. It was also, as I have said quite an honor to be able to talk to you.

I have found that other researchers are not as kind with their time, and seem to really be upset when I have tried to call and talk with them. Then, when I was able to get through to you - and spend as much time as you let me talk - I was very surprised and excited that I finally was able to talk with the one person, who in my opinion has always been "on line" with what this investigation should be about - our national honor!

I have just finished the third of your books - PHOTOGRPHIC WHITEWASH - suppressed Kennedy Assassination pictures - and I cannot tell you how much I have gotten out of these books, considering how many other books I have read on this subject over the years. I am looking forward to starting the next in your series - WHITEWASH IV!

As you told me I am reading all of your books in sequence, and as I read them I am making some very detailed notes and questions. As for these questions (that I am sure that I will have more of after I finish reading WHITEWASH IV & Postmortem) this is what I was asking you about in our last conversation on 10-26-91. I wish that there would be some way I could talk to you about these and some other things pertinent to this subject.

I have an inherited nerve deafness in both ears, and this makes talking over the phone alot harder for me, as I depend on reading someones lips as I talk to them to be able to completely understand what they are saying - maybe this will answer why it may have seemed to you that I was not getting everything that you told me in our phone conversations. So I guess what I am getting around to is that when I do finish all of your works, would there be anyway possible for me to be able to come and visit with you at you convenience - and for as little or as much time as you would be able to allow me. I certainly understand that this is a lot to ask, but I am so caught up in this and I want to continue to be able to dig for myself to find out some things - but I just do not know exactly how to get any farther than I am at at this time. I would also completely understand if this would be to much of an inconvenience for you, and I would just appreciate what ever help and advice you could give me. I just do not want to believe that there is nothing that cannot be done to correct this mark on our countrys heritage.

I am enclosing with this a SASE for you to reply back to me on these various questions I have asked. If you do think that it would be possible for me to come and visit with you, please let me know how you would want to go about it. If not, is there some way for us to correspond that I could learn some of what you could offer me?

Thank you again for your patience with me, and for allowing me to talk with you as I have. I hope for your continued good health and look forward to hearing from you soon!

Sincerely,

Chip Chandler
