Okay, Swords and Plowshares,

Mawy yeare ago Mr, Buchwald broke a story revealing the true role of the CIA. People laughed at the time-but they aren't laughing any more.

By Art Buchwald

The OLA has been getting 50 much publicity that one starts to wonder how eecret our Secret Service really In. Esquire magaaine devoted an enture iscure to the CIA, The New York Timer had e flvepart series on it, and the CIA is defending an Estonian in a slander suit in Baltimore. In another case coming to court soon, a man who says the worked for the CIA is being tried for smuggling arms destined for Angola and Mozambique. You can't pick up a news paper or magazine these days with out reading about the organization.
Many people are bewildered over the amount of publicity the CIA is getting, ibut I can put their minds at ease. The reason the CIA is getting all the publicity is that it is not our major secret service organization. It is, in fact, a cover to detract from our real Central Intelligence Agency, which is the Department of Agrl culture.
Yes, the Department of Agriculture is the real inteligence organiza tion, operating without fanfare, rare ly getting its name in the papers and maintaining a discreet silence worthy of the greatest inteligence operation in the free world.

It can now be revealed that the CIA was set up for no other reason then to keep people from prying into the affairs of the Agriculture Department.

The $$ 46$-million CIA headquarters, with its 16,000 employees, the farflung spy network, the gathering of : information from around the world are all a ruse that, up until now, has worked beyond the Department of Agriculture's wildest dreams.

The CIA has been blamed for the U-2 incident, the foul-up in the Dominican Republic and the eetting up of the Diem government In South Vietnam. What few people realize is that this is exactly the way the Secretary of Agricultur wants ith, because the more things the CLA gets 4 blamed for, the less chance there is F of discovering who wạs really behind these operations.

Whenever Someone starts getting inquisitive about what the Department of Agriculture is up to, the CIA immediately leaks a story to the press of some momentous blunder the CIA committed and everyone, including the Russians, thinke we goofed again.
The reason the Department of Agriculture was chosen to be our intelligence arm is that no one really cares what the Agriculture people do. They have an inexhaustive supply of funds that they are supposed to pay out to the farmers for not growing crops

- Using this as a pretext, the Department can siphon off large amounts of money to its agents in the form of farm subsidies and no one is the wiser.
Besides this, the Department has crop-dusting aircraft, which are really used for spying operations, and all the storage facilities which are supposed to be holding surplus commodities are, in fact, filled with the latest and most sophisticated spy equipment
The only time the Department of Agriculture was even remotely in the limelight was during the Billie Sol Estes swindle. But just when the heat was on, the CIA pulled off the Bay of Pigs caper, and everyone forgot about Estes.

The CIA angrily denied the charges that they were a front for the Department of Agriculture when I called them. But the ovidence is so overwhelming that their protestations just added to, rather than detracted from, my theory.
No organization that gets in "the paper as much as the CIA could possibly be part of our Secret Serv. ice, and no organization that geti in the papers as little as the Department of Agriculture could be mything but 2 worldwide intelligence network.

Let this be a Iesson to those who believe the United States govarnment does not know what it is doing. - 1\%is. Yow Ansoles TMmen
