rington Sees Bid ele CIA Probe $1.9.15

By George Lardner Jr.

Mass.) charged yesterday that he has been made the target of a brazen attempt" to squelch the House investiga written pledge of secrecy and stage for efforts to abolish the tion of the Central Intelligence Agency, sures last year, about covert Chile, Salvador Allende. CIA operations in Chile, Har-rington held a press confer-ence to protest what he de-with the debate over the con-House Democratic leaders to CIA operations in Chile, Harence on secrecy even in the face of illegal activities.

which we are pledged," Har impossible for him to conduct ask the Rules Commit rington said. "The only way to avoid this dilemma is to chal." The CIA disclosed many of to reach a compromise. wild."

A member of the select set up to investigate the CIA. Harrington said he had no intention of resigning from the panel—which some critics have suggested is the price that must be paid before the inquiry can go forward.

government has engaged in wrongdoing.

Putting the question di-rectly to Albert in a letter requesting a ruling from the House, House Democratic Policy and discovers in classified records part of a brazen attempt to

The Massachusetts Demomittee. The committee's Dem-

lenge the basic assumptions of its improper or illlegal activi-a classification system gone ties to Nedzi more than two years ago as chairman of the standing House Armed Serv House intelligence committee ices subcommittee in charge of CIA oversight. But he took no action, in light of CIA Di-rector William E. Colby's assurances that corrective steps were being taken. Harrington said that last month's attack on him effec-Instead, he called on House tively shifted the controversy Speaker Carl Albert (D-Okla.) "from Lucien Nedzi's shortto help resolve the question of comings as an overseer of inwhat a lawmaker should do telligence operations to Mi-with evidence—even when chael Harrington's alleged stamped "top secret?—that his recklessness in handling official secrets all on the very day that Mr. Nedizi's resignaquestion di- tion as select committee chairman was taken up by the

"It does not take a conspira Steering Committee, Harring- torial mind," Harrington said ton asked: "What is the re- of the Armed Services Comsponsibility of a member who mittee reprimand, "to see it as

2 3

Rep. Michael Harrington (D. ernment has broken the law?" subvert the select committee investigation."

The House voted overwhelleaking classified information select committee and perhaps about CIA operations directed start again with a fresh panel. Under fire for his disclo- against the late president of Nedzi has called no meetings since the House vote and has Efforts by Albert and other House Democratic leaders to scribed, as the heart of the tinuation of Rep. Lucien N. patch up the rift have so far problem: congressional insist Nedzi (D-Mich.), as chairman been fruitless. Partly as a reof the House intelligence com- sult, the House, Rules Committee had scheduled a meeting "We have all, to some de-gree, become accomplices in allowing such policies to con-that Nedzi's record as a CIA Speaker Albert indicated yestinue because of the silence to overseer in the past made it terday, however, that he would ask the Rules Committee to hold off for further attempts