

Cuba Holds 4 Pres 1/6/67 In Smuggling Of Refugees

HAVANA, Jan. 5 (AP)—The Cuban government said last night that it had broken up a plot to smuggle 20 Cubans at $1000 each to Miami by capturing four "infiltrators from Florida" and killing a fifth who resisted arrest.

An Interior Ministry communique said the group's leader was Enrique Gonzalez Rodriguez, identified as the captain of a boat that sank with 44 Cuban refugees on an illegal crossing to Florida last September during Hurricane Inez. Gonzalez, a Cuban exile from Miami, was the only survivor then.

The communique said Gonzalez and a member of his group, Francisco Cordoba, admitted they were agents of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency. It said equipment was seized that proved CIA involvement in the plot, including a rubber raft, radio, arms and ammunition.

The Ministry said Gonzalez also admitted that he had operated prowler boats for U.S. intelligence officials on previous missions to Cuba. The four were captured near Remedios, in Las Villas Province. The date was not given.

The slain man was identified as Ramon Bravo Alcalas. The two others were said to be Alberto Concepcion Barreiras and Jose Martinez Valdez. Their nationalities were not given.

Relatives of the 20 Cubans in Miami had agreed to pay $1000 each for their crossing, the Ministry said. It accused the United States of spying, encouraging smuggling of refugees and "pirate activity."
