SPEAKERS DAY FRIDAY FEATURES

GRISWOLD AND CHESTERFIELD SMITH

LUNCHEON HONORING DEAN GRISWOLD: J.M.B.A. invites you to attend a luncheon in honor of Erwin Griswold - former Harvard Law Dean and U.S. Solicitor General. The buffet luncheon will be held Friday, January 31 at 11:30 a.m. at the Sweden House, 2400 S.W. 13th Street. Tickets are $3.00 at the J.M.B.A. office. Reservations may be made by calling J.M.B.A. 392-0498 between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. by January 29, 1975.

CHESTERFIELD SMITH: Former American Bar Association President will be available for an informal discussion period with law students on Friday, 31 January at 2:00 p.m. in the "pit." If you have questions concerning the legal profession or would simply like to meet this stimulating member of The Florida Bar, drop by Room 297 at 2:00 p.m. this Friday. Sponsored by Phi Delta Phi.

DEAN JULIN: Dean Julin served as Chairman of the ABA accreditation team inspecting Antioch School of Law in Washington, D.C., an institution nearly three years old devoted to clinical and poverty law training.

SPEAKING OF INSPECTIONS: A joint ABA-AALS inspection team will visit the University of Florida College of Law Thursday and Friday. The purpose is to determine whether the college continues to comply with the accrediting agencies' standards. Many of you will be asked to express your opinion to the members of the committee: Dean Monrad G. Paulson, University of Virginia School of Law; Prof. Mary W. Oliver, University of North Carolina School of Law; Prof. James Patrick White, Indianapolis Law School of Indiana University; and Dr. Glenn W. Irwin, Jr., Vice-President, Indiana University.

WHEW! The University Administration has agreed to reactivate our Climate Control System and is reassessing our special situation as a sealed building.

VISITING: Dean Erwin Griswold is in Washington every Monday as a member of Vice President Rockefeller's special commission investigating the Central Intelligence Agency.

SHINGLE PICTURES: All Ethics students in Sections One through Three who did not have their pictures taken last Wednesday evening are urged to drop by the Student Lounge at 7:00 p.m. this coming Wednesday, January 29, and have this done. It only takes a minute and doesn't hurt a bit.

All students in Sections Four through Six are asked to attend this photographing session also. We can click off 100 pictures in an hour if we can just get all the students to show up. Really, it doesn't cost anything; and it isn't any out of your way to drop by the Student Lounge before you go to Ethics class.

If the Shingle is going to be published and be successful, we need your cooperation.

NOTICE: RE-TAKES - The following people did not come out with good pictures this week. Please give us a chance to make you beautiful on January 29th: Terry Wex, Bruce Kaster, Jack Coe, Fran Johnson, Bob Castellanos, Philip Deberrard, Alan Barten, Michael T. Hensick, George Daniels, Bernie Conko, Anne Conway.
