The CIA Report

On Eartha Kitt

By Seymour M. Hersh

New York Times

Washington

The Central Intelligence Agency, asked by the Secret Service in 1968 about Eartha Kitt, produced an extensive report containing second-hand gossip about the entertainer's political activities or associations, a copy of the report shows.

The report, submitted last week to Miss Kitt, criticized the Vietnam war and White House foreign policy during the Johnson administration. It shows that the CIA had been monitoring her since 1955, eight years after she began appearing professionally in Europe and the United States.

The CIA report on Miss Kitt, which has been obtained by the New York Times, includes information about her from "confidential" sources in Paris and in New York City.

Undersecretary of Internal Security. According to the CIA, the agency was barred from any domestic police or internal security functions. The agency's counterintelligence division, however, has traditionally been responsible for monitoring the activities of Americans overseas who were suspected of becoming involved with foreign intelligence organizations.

The New York Times quoted informed sources reported December 23 that 10,000 files were maintained on dissidents until the practice was discovered in 1973 by James Schlesinger, then the CIA director.

The CIA report contained no information to suggest that Miss Kitt had any personal or other contact with foreign agents while entertaining overseas.

She did dance briefly according to the report, along with a dancing group whose leader was said to have served as a sponsor or endorser of a number of Communist front activities in 1968.

Miss Kitt, 48, died last week.

Asked about the agency's work, REPORTEURS were told to consult the matter with the CIA.

EARTHA KITT
A three-page report

I don't understand this at all. I think it's disgusting. I don't know what the times would publish as much of the CIA report as it saw fit.

The entertainer said that most of the statements about her childhood and career, as recorded in the CIA document, were incorrect.

The inquiry into Miss Kitt originated after she shouted angrily at Mrs. Johnson during a luncheon on Jan. 18, 1968, that the nation's youth were rebelling because they were being "snatched off to be shot in Vietnam."

to ban CIA surveillance of American citizens.
