Wednesday, Feb. 19, 1975 THE WASHINGTON POST D6

Council Asks Specific Data On D.C. Police Surveillance

By Linda Newton Jones Washington Post Staff Writer

tions it would like answered in the forthcoming report on the intelligence-gathering activities of the D.C. police department.

Included among the questions was one about the esti- should petition him for the mmated total cost of the intelli- formation. He said he already gence program and another on has "the assurances of the the degree of control depart- mayor" that the Council will ment officials have over the receive the information. activities of individual officers in order to prevent illegal in. David A. Oktavit A. Under surveil-lieves he was under surveilvestigations.

ment's report no later than joined a group he headed at the first week in March. Mem- that time, the D. C. Freedom bers said the report would and Independence Day Com-intelligence activities of the woman Willie Hardy also was department.

D.C. Police Chief Maurice Cullinane ordered the internal gence activities of the departinvestigation into the activi-ment revealed that at-large ties of the department's intel- Councilman Marion Barry and ligence division last week af-D.C. Del. Walter ter it was reported that city were included in police files. police maintained files on the ists and some local politicians. the mayor would support their At-large City Councilman quest for additional informa-

Council in its move to obtain independent review of the acts by the elected City Coun-Hobson told the Council at 1."

committee-of-the-whole its

the additional information on list of persons who were subthe department. The Council jected to other forms of sur-The D.C. City Council yes- endorsed Hobson's move and veillance for noncriminal reaterday sent to Mayor Walter all members except Chairman sons. Members also want to E. Washington a list of ques- Sterling Tucker signed a mem- know who authorized the surorandum he delivered to the veillances, who ordered the mayor.

Tucker told the Council that whether the information was be had already conferred with gencies.

the mayor concerning the report and did not feel

Councilman Ward One David A. Clarke said he belance by the police in 1971 The Council asked that it re- when a woman, who was later ceive copies of the depart- revealed to be a police officer, provide the basis for a possi- mittee. ble Council investigation into He said Ward 7 Councila member of the committee.

Recent reports of the intelli-Fauntroy

Council members said in the personal lives of antiwar activ- memo that they are confident Julius Hobson, who was re-tion since "we are sure the cit-ported to have been included izens of the District would in the police files, led the feel more comfortable with an

The Council asked that the meeting yesterday that he report also include a complete planned to ask the mayor for ist of all persons named in a copy of the report and for special noncriminal files and a destruction of the files, and