

CIA accused of underwriting

Knight News Service

MIAMI — The Center for Intelligence Affairs has filed suit for $10 million against Andres Casanova, a Cuban mortgage banker, for allegedly admitting a large number of mortgages to the CIA for underwriting.

The suit was filed in District Court in Miami by the Center for Intelligence Affairs.

It was filed in the name of the Center for Intelligence Affairs.

The suit was filed in the name of the Center for Intelligence Affairs.

The suit was filed in the name of the Center for Intelligence Affairs.

Center claimed that it was underwritten with a large amount of money.

Center claimed that it was underwritten with a large amount of money.

Center claimed that it was underwritten with a large amount of money.

MIAMI (UPI) — A Miami mortgage banker has filed suit for $10 million against the CIA, claiming the agency underwrote a large number of mortgages for him.

The suit was filed in the name of the Center for Intelligence Affairs.

The suit was filed in the name of the Center for Intelligence Affairs.

The suit was filed in the name of the Center for Intelligence Affairs.

The suit was filed in the name of the Center for Intelligence Affairs.

The suit was filed in the name of the Center for Intelligence Affairs.

The suit was filed in the name of the Center for Intelligence Affairs.