" star 4/3/67

Ramparts Hits Meany On Denial of CIA Links

Intelligence George President denial that the CIA financed the policy. international operations of several AFL-CIO unions.

several AFL-CIO unions. In its April issue, the magaz-ine said three unions have cooperated with the CIA--the American Newspaper Guild month for many years' checks (ANG), the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union (OCAW) and the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes (AFSCME). Jay Lovestone, AFL-CIO Jay Lovestone, AFL-CIO international affairs, and Irving Brown, AFL-CIO European representative, were European representative, were named by Ramparts as organized labor's principal liaison officers with the CIA.

Strident Anti-Communist

has contracted out both its open to keep them intact," the magaand secret foreign relations with zine added.

and secret foreign relations with workers and trade unions in other countries to Meany and his secretary of state, Lovestone," said the magazine. Lovestone is a former head of the American Communist party who became a stirdent anti-union recently announced that it Communist. Ramparts last month touched off a major that the CIA had provided international program. extensive but covert financial support to the U.S. National Student Association and other Student Association and other the American Institute for Free youth groups.

Ramparts magazine, continu-|"educational or private volun-ing its criticism of the Central tary organizations," but did not Agency, disputes specify whether labor organiza-George Meany's tions were to be included in that f Ramparts said Meany is either "a liar or a fool" in

'Cut off Operations'

But when A. L. Grospiron was elected president of the union in 1965, he "quietly cut-off CIA ties as soon as he took office, resist-"The American government ing all pressures applied to him

Labor Development (AIFLD), President Johnson last week endorsed the report of a Cabi-net-level commission that called for the end of covert financing of throughout Latin America."