o End Seen to Hidden War in Laos

By Jack Anderson

At an all-day session so secret that no transcript was kept. Ambassador G. Mc-Murtrie Godley told the Sen-hand tapes be destroyed. ate Foreign Relations Committee last week that he could

This remote Buddhist king-Any acknowledgement an informal briefing. tion. would be a diplomatic embarrassment to Washington, Moscow and Hanoi, alike, all paying almost all the bills, bound by a 1962 Geneva pact military and civil alike, in to uphold Laotian neutrality.

closed doors that the fighting support the Royal Lao governalready has made refugees of ment. This helps to cover even 700,000 luckless Laotians, peo- the palace expenses of King ple who by nature would Savang Vatthana, who pre-rather make love than war, sides over both sides in the This is nearly one-third of the civil war. nation's 2.6 million population.

year. An aggrieved Senator mier Souvanna Phouma not Frank Church (D - Idaho)) only sanctioned the devastathe people live on.

Hassle Over Secrecy

The hearing opened with a one transcript be made, that it be kept under lock at the de- the CIA-subsidized guerrilla partment and that the short-

Chairman J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark.) and Senator Stuart foresee no end to the "hidden Symington, (D-Mo.) protested war" in Laos. vigorously. This would set a they contended, precedent, dom, beloved by its gentle that would erode the commitpeople as the Land of the Mil. tee's right to question U.S. oflion Elephants and the White ficials. In the end, they de-Parasol, has been devastated cided to keep no transcript at by a war no one wants to men- all but to treat the hearing as

The bluff, affable Godley acknowledged that the U.S. was Laos. Between $25 million and Yet Godley reported behind $35 million, he said, goes to

The huge American military He also admitted that the investment gives Godley the U.S. is financing this unpubli- right, he explained, to veto cized, unhappy war to the any military operations. He astune of half-a-million dollars a sured the senators that Prepointed out that the cost of de-tion that has been wreaked struction in Laos was close to upon his poor country but had $500 per capita - five times sought even more air raids the $90 per capita income that than the Americans had been willing to fly.

Poor Battle Record

Godley admitted that the 30-minute hassle over the se- Royal Lao army, despite all heavy suffering of the Laotian leave them alone. crecy restrictions. The State its expensive American equippeople but claimed this saved

He was much more proud of nam. army of Meo tribesmen, led by General Vang Pao, a foul-mouthed former sergeant in the French army. The U.S. has more control over Van Pao's 14,000-man army, which is trained by American combat veterans now on the CIA pavroll.

amendment he and Senator John Cooper (R-Ky.) had pushed through Congress last year, barring the use of American ground troops in Laos. He asked Godley whether the amendment had been violated.

The ambassador replied that no ground troops had been requested by the Royal Lao government and that none had been introduced

He acknowledged, however that the U.S. is conducting most of the air war. Villages occasionally were hit, he said, to deny the use of the facilities to Communist troops. The villages were supposed to be empty and civilians were never intentionally killed. But he admitted that civilian casualties are higher than the world realizes.

Fulbright asked for the got the 700,000 figure out of Godley. When senators exbassador said he regretted the Department insisted that only ment, has a poor battle record. American lives in South Viet-

Hampering Hanoi

Church asked why the North Vietnamese, if they were suffering such damaging blows in Laos, didn't simply take over the country. pointed out that Hanoi has 400,000 regular troops who haven't been committed be-Senator Church recalled an yond North Vietnam's borders.

Godley agreed that North Vietnam probably had the military power to conquer Laos, but suggested that the U.S. would make it too costly.

Church asked how long the strange war in Laos was likely to last.

Unless a settlement for all Indochina should be worked out in Paris, Godley replied, he foresaw no end to the fight-

Pressing, Church asked whether any cutbacks were planned. Godley said there was "no planned reduction, no phaseout" in the works.

Senators who listened all day to Godley said he was fired up with enthusiasm. One senator described him as "exhilarated" over the experience of running the war in Laos.

Meanwhile, the passive Laonumber of refugees the war others, have no interest in had "generated" in Laos and fighting and, no doubt, would got the 700,000 figure out of Godley. When senators expressed their shock, the ampressed their shock, the ampressed their shock, the ampressed their shock to their peaceful ways—if only the North Vietnamese and the Americans would go home and @ 1970. Bell-McClure Syndicate, Inc.