Dear Mr Weisberg,

I wonder if you can lay your hands on the Naval regulation laying down the procedure in for a post mortem (England) OR autopsy (U.S.A.),

I was most impressed by your use of the autopsy on Lee Oswald, but naval regulations valid in England (to all states) would have certain advantages, even though the result will presumably be much the same

Sincerely
y

Colin Cantler

I expect you to deduct for your charges for the sum you told. If that is not sufficient I will send you more money.
