Dear Mr. Weisberg:

The enclosed photostat is for you to keep; unfortunately it was not what I expected from Carnegie Library.

When you have the chance, return the article on the M. L. King assassination.

I also have an article entitled "Are You Sure Who Killed Martin Luther King?" by Dynum Shaw in the March 1972 issue of Esquire, pp. 114-19 & 163-66. If you would like to see it too, let me know.

I'm not sure what your theory is . . . Do you believe it was a conspiracy or "cover-up"?

Also there is a book that may be of interest to you entitled Smiling Through the Apocalypse: Esquire's History of the Sixties (1971) [McCall Books $12.50 & Delta paperback $3.95] with an entire section "Sixty Versions of the Kennedy Assassination," by Edward Jay Epstein, pp. 467-505. Your theory is #49, p. 497. I can send this to you also if you wish.

If I can be of any further assistance, don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

E. J. Bader

P.S. I still intent to contact Carnegie Library concerning their reply. Abbie Hoffman and Robert Cirino attempted to have their books (Steal This Book and Don't Blame the People) published privately after going through 30 & 10 publisher rejections respectively. The year before, Abbie Hoffman had a best seller.
