Dear Raphaela,

Enclosed are the first two letters I've received about Case Open, both today.

I have had several phone calls, all of varying degrees of praise.

Will you please tell Peter that my copies have finally come? I'd asked him to check. They came yesterday. I'll also appreciate knowing if John Mooney sent to copies I asked him to when he phoned and asked me to tell him who might write reviews for minor publications. If he sent them I do not want to waste any copies and I'm too tired to make packages for nothing. But I want to send them if he didn't.

The call I enjoyed most was from a man in Detroit. He'd read Posner. When he read Case Open and came to the David Lui plagiarism he picked Posner up, checked me out and ~~to~~ phoned me to exclaim, "Fantastic!" Of course he'd have had no way of knowing anyway but at least he has learned to check, what nobody in the major media did.

If you get any letters I'll appreciate them or copies of them.

Not a peep from Posner.

Best wishes,

Harold

Dear Mr. Zwaren,

I do appreciate your letter and that you took the time for it.

The list of our books and their prices is enclosed.

I am amused at your understanding Whitewash when you were but 11. One of those who espouses theories in several books claims it is incomprehensible.

Thanks for asking the preferred method of payment. We live in the country and if you do not remit in US funds it costs us two fees and much trouble.

Please add to the cost of whatever you order book-rate to ^{Canada}. Oswald in New Orleans and Post Mortem will weight two pounds ^{each}, the others, unless I am ^{careless} in the packaging, will weight one. For each of those you list, this is the weight.

I hope you will find the time to tell your friends about Case Open so they may learn about it.

In about September my NEVER AGAIN! is due from the same publisher.

Again thanks,

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I just completed "Case Open" and have to pass on my thanks for another job well done. After reading Posner's book last year I was astonished at the lack of astute critical analysis of his rather contrived work. As a Canadian I thought maybe I'd just missed a few reviews or books on the subject but obviously not. The whitewash continues. I want to thank you for an excellent and what I consider objective critique of Posner's bestselling work of fiction.

I read your first book, "Whitewash" in 1965 when I was all of 11 years old; this dog-eared blue covered edition stills holds a prominent place in my extensive library. Since that point in time I have studied all the works I can get my hands on regarding this black day in America's history. Still, after all these years, I regard "Whitewash" as the seminal work on the Kennedy assassination. Its findings remain intact and may someday bring us closer to the truth.

I have not been able to find the remainder of your books in Canada and would like to order the following:

- Whitewash II
- Photographic Whitewash
- Oswald in New Orleans
- Whitewash IV
- Post-Mortem

Please advise me of the cost of these materials and preferred method of payment.

Once again, let me thank you for your books and your relentless pursuit of truth. I commend you for your investigative integrity and hope that someday your works will receive a wider audience. I will do what I can do in this country to have your voice heard.

The best of health to you.

Yours truly,

Rick Zwaren

Dear Mr. Wilson,

I appreciate your letter and the time you took for it.

I enclose a list of our books.

For your thesis I think you will find much in my coming NEVER AGAIN! Last I heard it is to be published this September.

I think also that aside from my inherent addressing of that subject you may find the rather personal epilogue to Whitewash II of interest.

My work is basically a study of how the basic institutions of our society worked in that time of great stress and since then.

Did not work, really.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I am a 28 year old grammar school teacher, and wasn't even born at the time of JFK's assassination. Yet, it touched me deeply, as did the death of Martin Luther King.

In their death's, I feel that America lost the chance to move ahead with a chance to heal it's sicknesses. God had sent us these men to lead us. And however imperfect they were, they threatened the status quo enough to end up dying for it. -And what are we left with? Young people who are by and large bitter, skeptical, and feel that getting involved is useless. We reap what we sow.

Today I picked up your book "Case Open". I was relieved to see that someone answered what Posner had stated. After seeing him on 20/20 and a few other shows, he seemed an answer to quell the tide and questions brought mainstream by the movie "JFK". And from what I have read in the past, he seemed a liar.

I can't believe what has been covered up and kept from the mainstream media. Until I saw the movie I was not aware of the work that Yourself and others have done, often at great personal expense. I began to read the best books that I could find. And I am still numb. What else haven't we as a people been told? And how could such a thing be hidden for so long?

I plan on attending graduate school and writing a thesis on the changes in America after JFK's death. I would like to read your work "Oswald In New Orleans:Case For Conspiracy With The CIA". If you send me a copy, I will remit the cost to you as soon as possible (if you tell me the price). I'd be really grateful.

I read in your introduction that you needed help in going through your files to aid in your work. If I lived in closer proximity, I would gladly help. I would consider it an honor. I hope that some people step forward.

My grandfather was a simple man, a Swedish immigrant. And he saved all of the magazines from the time of Kennedy's death. I still have them. So I know that this had to touch him deeply. Something like that wasn't usual for him to do. And he always said that the truth was never told. -I would like to write my thesis for him, and people like him.

I'm glad that people such as yourself were around to tend to the unpleasant task of documenting the facts for the sake of history, and to warn us. God bless you!

Sincerely,

Robert Wilson
