Dear Mr. Futrelle,

Several months ago I wrote In These Times in connection with a couple of reviews of new books on the JFK assassination (copy enclosed). Although I did not see it, or any portion of it, published in the "Letters" section, I hope it was at least read and pondered by someone on the staff. I am writing now to inform you that, indeed, as I indicated in my earlier letter, Harold Weisberg has published Case Open in response to Gerald Posner's Case Closed. I am enclosing a xerox of the front and back cover in the hope it may pique your interest.

Mr. Weisberg's Case Open represents only about one-fourth of the length of the rough draft. Posner's book is that error-laden and fraudulent. Among other things, what I believe is especially relevant for a publication such as In These Times is that Mr. Weisberg exposes the witting and unwitting complicity of the mainstream press in falling for Posner's fabrications. As I predicted accurately on a radio program I did back in Oct.'93, the networks, including PBS, went for Posner in a big way in their thirtieth anniversary specials. In classes that I teach here on the assassination, I never fail to stress to students that the notion that we have a critical press in this country is largely a myth. The incredible lengths to which the likes of CBS News, the New York Times, major publishers such as Random House, etc. have gone to defend the government's handling of this investigation is without parallel, I believe.

I hope you will give this letter and Case Open some consideration. I assure you you will not be disappointed.

Sincerely,

Gerald Ginocchio
