

J. E. Delaune Funeral Rites Conducted

Services for Jules E. Delaune took place today at the Leitz-Eagan Funeral Home, 4747 Veterans Memorial Blvd. Interment was in Hope Mausoleum.

Mr. Delaune, chief clerk administrator for the Orleans Parish Coroner's Office, died yesterday.

He had been with the coroner's office for nearly 18 years. He was 48.

A native of Lockport, Mr. Delaune lived in New Orleans for the past 32 years. He resided at 5151 Webster St.

Survivors include his widow, Irma Saunders Delaune; two sons, Joseph and Richard Delaune, and a daughter, Sharon Delaune.

Jules Delaune was a brother of Mrs. Nicholas Chetta, as was Dr. Henry Delaune.

This death on Jan. 10 was on a Sunday. States-Item has carried nothing further on it.

Shaw's perjury trial was scheduled for the 18th. After trying to get it stopped in the State Supreme Court, his attorneys went into federal court on the 18th and on the 19th got a TRO against proceeding, with a hearing for arguments set for Jan. 25.
