JFK MYSTERY CONTINUES

Since the assassination of President Kennedy, we have been informing you of the many mysterious deaths which happened to people who had some connection with the incident.

It has been our opinion from the very beginning, that President Kennedy was either slain through a conspiracy on the part of the C.I.A., or by direct orders from the Kremlin itself. We stated we believed the reason Supreme Court Justice Warren surrounded his reports with so much secrecy was the fear that if the American people knew that this was a Communist directed assassination, the Party would be outlawed in America. We then would have severed all relations with Soviet Russia, an action which could well have brought an end to the United Nations and all the Fabian schemes, that would surrender our sovereignty into a world super government.

There now has come to light some new evidence which has been heretofore suppressed by government agents.

On the night of September 13th, or early in the morning of September 14th, the apartment of Roy E. Frankhouser at 133 South 4th Street in Reading, Pa. was raided. The doors were broken down and a large sledge hammer must have been used to open a cabinet from which important files were taken. This was not the first time, but the fifth time since the death of President Kennedy, that this home has been raided.

To the average layman, the address of this home means nothing. But to those who are abreast of political activities in this country, they will remember that it was at this address in 1955 that Daniel Burros, was suspected of "committing suicide".

Two books have been written about Daniel Burros, one entitled "ONE MORE VICTIM" and the other "THE LIFE AND DEATH OF A JEWISH NAZI". You may recall a great portion of one volume of the Warren Report dealt with him. A notebook found on Lee Harvey Oswald, contained his name and address and private telephone number. Also, the Garrison probe believed that a special link between Oswald and Burros existed.

(It might be noted that following the Kennedy assassination, his home was broken into and Roy Frankhouser lost one eye. He has been beaten by thugs and on two occasions shots were fired through the window at this home while Daniel Burros was there.)

There are many patriots who were curious at the time of Burros' suicide, as to whether or not he was driven to this act by the same forces which were driving the Following the suicide of Daniel Burros, he was investigated by the government, Federal Agent Bill Davis and a man, whom we believe gave his name as Hoffman, went to this address and took a deposition from Roy E. Frankhouser; and the deposition given by Mr. Frankhouser reported the following events.

He stated that in 1951 he infiltrated the Communist Party and the Socialist Workers Party, operating in Philadelphia and led by Art Fetterbloom and David Weiss. He also set forth that at that time he knew Mr. Paine and Mrs. Paine at whose home Mrs. Oswald was staying at the time of the assassination, and who were very good friends of David Weiss's wife, and that Oswald was a friend of the editor of THE MILITANT.

In the summer of 1961, Mr. Frankhouser, who had changed his name to Houser for cover-up purposes in his infiltration, was invited to the City of New York to attend a Scientific Socialist Convention. This convention attracted members of both the Communists and the Socialist Workers Party. (It was at this Conference that the University at Berkeley was designated as one of the first targets in the revolutionary move to take over our campuses.)

On one day of the convention, a group of 35 leaders of the convention were invited to the apartment of Helena Rubinstein. Frankhouser stated that he noticed an attack from the Soviet Embassy in an interesting discussion with a man whom he knew as Mr. Paine, (who later was identified as the husband of Mrs. Ruth Paine and a friend of Marina Oswald). He sauntered over and entered the discussion and was later asked by Mr. Paine, to a private conference. At this conference, Mr. Paine inquired into his military background and later said that he would put him in connection with military men and those leaving the service who were now joining Activist Cells. He said they were building these "A" Cells because the time of talking was over and some drastic things needed to be done to vitalize the revolutionary corps in America and bring the class struggle to a head.

Mr. Paine further said that we need to make martyrs of people who have ceased to be useful to the cause and to eliminate Fascists or right-wingers in such a way that it will bring confusion and fear among the enemies of the revolution.

Mr. Paine stated that one of the main people to be shot down was Bull Connor, Chief of Birmingham P.D., so as to show to the southern rightists that they are not immune to assassination and to give the blacks courage to take on others.

He said that through these Activist Cells a corps was being developed that would have no fear of breaching people out of prison or of assassinating Dwight D. Eisenhower, who at that time was President of the United States. And, he said that might serve our purpose.

Before later going to Mr. Frankhouser, several letters were written to him from the University at Berkeley, and Mr. Frankhouser dropped both the Communist Party and the Socialist Workers Party. He had almost forgotten these incidents, until he read about Marina Oswald being at the home of Ruth Paine and of their many connections. It was shortly after this that the FBI called upon him. They told him not to leave town after they took the deposition as he would be summoned by the Warren Commission to testify about his connections and knowledge of Mr. Paine. (Mr. Paine operated within the party as Larabee.)

Later an agent from the FBI returned to his home and told him to forget all about the whole matter, and to wipe it from his mind. It would be the best for his health, and this was very vital to our national security, the agent said.

From that time until now, Frankhouser has undergone much persecution and harassment by government agents and from others whose connections he does not know. One wonders now that they have taken some of the Paine letters from his files, what will happen next? Will he suffer the same fate as all the others who knew something about the Kennedy Assassination? Will the conspirators never rest until they are assured that all lips are sealed?

DEFECTION

Dancers in Moscow's Bolshoi Ballet have been told that if anyone defects to a foreign country during an overseas tour, the company's foreign engagements will be cancelled for 13 months.

This is the first official reaction to the defection in London of Natalia Makarova, the brilliant 29-year-old ballerina of Leningrad's Kirov Ballet. The warning comes just before the Bolshoi Ballet leaves for a months tour of Italy.

Klies Makarova will renew an old dancing partnership with Soviet-born dancer Rudolph Nureyev, the British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC) said.

Conservatives Gain

The Liberal Americans for Democratic action in their 24th Annual Report state that Conservatism is gaining in both houses of Congress. The only 100% Liberals in the Senate this year were Walter Mondale, (D.) from Minnesota and Gaylord Nelson (D.) from Wisconsin.

Only 10 were represented in the House as being 100% Liberals.

Those with 100% ratings in the House, all Democrats, are Thomas Ashley, Ohio; Jonathan Bingham, N.Y.; Jeffrey Cobejan, Cal.; William Green, Pa.; Edward Koch, N.Y.; Abner Mikva, Ill; Edward Roybal, Cal; William F. Ryan, N.Y.; and Jerome Waldie, Cal.

AUTHORESS DIES

It is reported that the author of the book "WATERS FLOWING EASTWARD" has died. Her name was L. Fay. Her work was a great contribution to the patriotic cause. Her most circulated book was "WATERS FLOWING EASTWARD".

Ford Financing Revolution

The latest example is a $75,000 grant to the Black Panthers of the University of California at Los Angeles. And this isn't the worst of it.

The University of California at Los Angeles is permitting the Black Panthers to use the facilities of the university to promote revolution.

It is another illustration of where the intellectual community and the tax-free foundations have joined together to destroy the very system which created and produced them.

BLACK PANTHERS

John Steinbacher, a reporter for the ANAHEIM (California) BULLETIN, has recently written an article on the activities of the Black Panthers financed by the Ford Foundation of UCLA. His article follows:

"The Ford Foundation, through the Community for Awareness and Social Education (CASE) at UCLA is paying for radical revolutionary support of the Black Panthers and for the glorification of such Marxist heroes as Che Guevara and Milovan Djilas.

Located in the Student Union Building the Marxist center is decorated with photographs of Eldridge Cleaver and Black Panther symbols, offering graduate level courses with the help of a $75,000 Ford Foundation grant.

According to Rob Baker, one of two coordinators for the project, the program is student directed as well as student initiated and is "the largest student experimental program in the country."

A 12-unit course, grades are based on pass or fail, and the Ford Foundation according to Baker, "is sponsoring the experimental programs because they feel this is one way to channel student radicalism and involve the radicals in the community."

"If we are successful in this quarter," he said, "the Ford Foundation, I feel will give us more money."

Baker added, "They feel we are running a good program."

Asked who they are in contact with at the Foundation, the long-haired Baker replied, "We talk to Marshall Robinson, a director of the Ford Foundation."

Baker said, "I was formerly with CORE and I am in radical left politics. I was formerly with the SDS too, but I just couldn't work with them (the SDS) anymore."

In speaking of "life style", the sponsors are talking about a philosophy radically opposed to capitalism and to the system that brought the Ford Motor Company its great wealth and allowed it to channel huge sums into the tax-free Ford Foundation.

U.S. Gov. Sells Bomb Book

While the Internal Revenue Service searches library records to see who is reading books on explosives, the U.S. Bureau of Mines is selling explosive-making information to the public in a 40-cent pamphlet.

The situation was pointed out by Samuel J. Archibald, head of the Washington office of the University of Missouri Freedom of Information Center.

He refers to the pamphlet, "Explosives and Detonators" which "even gives the formula for making a simple explosive out of fuel oil and a readily available fertilizer."

It is absurd to "waste time investigating library users when the Federal government itself is a major source of information on uses of explosives."

ISRAEL ERODING AS RELIGIOUS ENTITY

Three rabbis were arrested and hauled into court in Tel Aviv recently, charged with slashing bus tires, throwing stones, attacking a bus driver, calling the police chief an idiot, obstructing traffic, holding an illegal meeting and organizing an unlicensed procession.

The rabbis, trying to keep their flock from violating the Jewish Sabbath, attacked buses taking bathers to the beach on the holy day.

The incident points up the erosion of the Jewish state as a wholly religious entity. Since its creation in 1948, it has become increasingly secular. Only an estimated 35 per cent of the Jewish population now are active churchgoers and the Sabbath (Saturday), the traditional day of rest, more and more is being treated as a secular holiday.

A current discussion is whether television broadcasts should be permitted on the sabbath. They are not now.

The row over operation of buses and taxis on the Sabbath was settled some time back: Taxis operate, transit buses do not -- a compromise on church-state separation. But, special buses running to the beaches and other entertainment spots have encroached on this ruling.

Even the strict Jewish dietary laws are widely ignored. Also, fast fading is the early dream in young Israel of building a rural Jewish society to contrast and help wipe out memories of the urban ghettos Jews had known, especially in eastern Europe.

The kibbutz (communal farm) program, which was designed to spur the rural society, was highly successful for years. Now it is past its peak, and the back-to-the-farm movement is static.

Only about 9% of the population live on these farms, and only 18% live in rural Israel.

Instead, there is an urban boom. Jerusalem is jammed. Tel Aviv is so crowded that it is considering banning private cars from the city center. Beersheba, a crossroads of some 1,200 persons 20 years ago, now is a bustling city of 86,000, the "capital" of the now-blooming Negev Desert.

A standard of living generally higher than most Israelis knew a generation ago, has diluted the Jewish faith's hold on many of its people. And younger Jews, like young people everywhere, are reacting against the establishment. The changing situation led a Jewish writer, Georges Friedmann, to write that "The Jewish people is disappearing and giving place to the Israel nation."

Contributing to that conversion is the presence in this tiny country of 220,000 Moslems, 60,000 Christians, and 30,000 Druzes, an offshoot of Judaism. These total more than 12 per cent of the population, and they do not observe the Jewish sabbath, the dietary laws, or the Jewish way of life.

BOOK SMUGGLED OUT OF RUSSIA

--A noted Soviet scientist, tossed into a mental hospital by Communist authorities last spring because of his views, has produced a book, smuggled to the West, which severely indicts the Communist system for its restrictions on scientific freedom.

The smuggled manuscript, published by MacMillan and Co. in the original Russian, is called "The Medvedev Papers: The Plight of Soviet Science." It is authored by Dr. Zhores A. Medvedev, 45, a geneticist who headed a department at the Obninsk Institute of Medical Radiology. A translated excerpt appeared in Nature, the journal of international science.

Medvedev was detained by Soviet authorities for three weeks in a mental hospital last May because he challenged the system. His release resulted from strong protests lodged by fellow Russian scientists, but at present he is said to be unemployed.

The published excerpt of his book told how Medvedev was refused permission in 1955 to attend a symposium at Sheffield University, where he was invited to give a key lecture on "Molecular Aspects of Aging". He listed a maze of bureaucratic evasions that prevented him from attending.

Instead, Medvedev said, on the day the lecture was scheduled, he and others from four laboratories took their turn with other employees of city organizations in harvesting potatoes outside Obninsk.

Soviet Fleet

Six vessels and one guided missile submarine of the Soviet fleet have been sighted off the coast of Puerto Rico.

Israel Bond Drive

An American Jewish group announced the launching of an emergency drive for the sale of $200 million in Israel bonds by the end of 1971 to help that nation in its current crisis.

The goal of the National Emergency Leadership Conference is the sale of $150 million in Israel development bonds in the remainder of 1970 with $350 million as the target for 1971.

Since its establishment 20 years ago, the Israel Bond Organization has sold more than $1.5 billion in bonds, $150 million of them in 1969.

The $500 million goal for the next 16 months was adopted at the meeting of 500 world Jewish leaders in Israel last month at which Prime Minister Golda Meir declared a large scale mobilization of finances is needed if Israel is to carry out its immigration and development programs despite the current military-political crisis.

Israeli Finance Minister Pinchas Sapir outlined Israel's needs and plans at a Sunday session in Washington, D.C.

We are happy to announce that a 3-pound 14-oz. boy called Michael William was born on August 23rd to Bill and Jan Hansen. Bill Hansen is the author of "CITY SURVIVAL".

USSR DEVELOPING ESP POWERS TO USE AS WAR WEAPON

RUSSIAN PSYCHIC RESEARCH BUDGET IS 100 TIMES BIGGER THAN OURS.

THE RUSSIANS HAVE A NEW SECRET WEAPON IN THEIR ARSENAL TO USE AGAINST WESTERN POWERS.

RUSSIAN SCIENTISTS ARE WORKING DAY AND NIGHT TO PERFECT MENTAL TELEPATHY AND VARIOUS OTHER FORMS OF ESP FOR DEFENSE PURPOSES.

They're spending five million dollars yearly to develop psychic powers scientifically.

The cloud of secrecy now over Russian experiments in this field is causing wide-spread alarm.

"For years Russian scientists have been leading in the field of research in psychic phenomena," defense spokesman Leslie Skinner explained. "Now it seems, they've pushed it to the limit and are using it for defense purposes. Interpol has informed us that up to five million dollars is spent yearly in this field under the heading of National Defense money.

"This weapon will be more deadly than the atomic bomb if used properly. We've nothing that can counteract this device."

Although American scientists fear the development of telepathic power in Russia as a defense weapon, they can do little about it.

Only fifty thousand dollars is allotted toward parapsychological research in the U.S. It is a separate field, though later plans are to develop it for military purposes.

"Our money priorities are the war in Vietnam and the space program," Mr. Skinner continued.

"We have no idea how far the Russians have developed their powers. Already espionage agents in the country could be obtaining military secrets with mental telepathy.

"They merely need to tuck their minds to that of our top brass and the information will be theirs." "Some day they will be able to read our minds and our troops' plans. Enemies would be helpless in front of their incredible force.

"Some may even be able to convince our troops to make moves they hadn't planned. The power of a telepathic mind is so great that no weapon will be able to stand against it."

So far the Americans are not sure how far their research has been developed. Russian scientists refuse to comment.

Experiments that were once open to world question are now closed to Western investigation. The latest work on their psychic experimentation are the films made of Nina Kulagina.

This medium was so strong that she could move objects by willing them in any direction. No magnets or other artificial devices were detected.

"Nina Kulagina was the most sensitive medium known to man in all our years of research," Dr. Timothy Card, a leading American scientist in parapsychological research at Memphis, Tennessee, explained.

"We knew that the Moscow scientists were planning to do an advanced series of tests on her powers. This knowledge alone puts them years ahead of us.

"By studying the body processes that made her power possible, they could easily spread the skill to others.

"My greatest fear is that she and others like her will be trained to misuse her powers. Bombs could be detonated from millions of miles away. Telepathy across space can't be blocked."

Despite our lack of information on the studies, it is obvious scientists are devoting months of research to the field.

Observers report that lights burn all night at the Moscow Center for Psychic Research. Mediums from all over the Communist bloc are being called in for testing.

Russian agents from all over the world have been recalled mysteriously. From then on their coming and going are a complete blank.

"Our inability to penetrate their latest secrets may be evidence of their powers," a CIA agent who remains anonymous confides.

"Our agents all over the world are blocked in their efforts to obtain information suddenly. Security measures that have kept our own powers in check may be slipping in Russia."

Can we develop our mental telepathy to this point before Russian minds have gone too far? Only time will tell.

Powerful countermeasures will be needed to block the Russians' latest weapon. It could make Russia the most powerful enemy in the world.
