

Hal:

I'll reasonably assume you have your own tape facilities. The recorded matter is meant to convey no more than perspective. The interviews by Dolan - when put in proper sequence - reveal the vulnerability of all factions involved in the JFK hassle. I've recorded my own observations at the end of the tape. Perhaps it would expedite getting discussions with Columbia started out here if you were to put John Starr in touch with me forthwith. Otherwise, one of two things is inevitable: They'll go elsewhere or lose interest entirely.

Received the I & II books.

Garrison's foxiness is amazing and confusing. Is he purposely moving forward without seeming continuity to confuse the defense? The Regis Kennedy tack should (ordinarily) backfire; but, the open hostility and disdain of the Big News Set is keeping pursuit away. CBS-TV is planning a Special on the matter, but I'm afraid that Cronkite's attitude will subvert its premise.

Can find nothing on OSWALD: THE TRUTH - No publishers' release at all. Mr. Winchell's column really isn't the fountainhead of reality one might expect.

Am anxious to read the New Orleans piece.

Best Personal Regards,
