Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Thank you for your prompt and courteous reply to my letter.

When I wrote you the latter part of July, my husband thought he would be able to take me to Mt. Airy most any time. Now complications have developed at his office and he must see his way clear until September.

I mention Mt. Airy rather than Hyattsville as I could not be sure that your home is not under surveillance.

Would you consider meeting me in Washington D. C.? I could fly down and stay at one of any hotel or motel, which would be the most convenient for you.

I have no legal proof but am convinced that I have information concerning a Conspiracy to assassinate the late President Kennedy. My informator states in Dallas but there could easily be a New Orleans connection.

I hope that we can arrange a meeting.

Sincerely yours,

Ruth Shady

P.S. I have just read

Whitewash II. I was particularly impressed with your Epilogue & Personal Statement.
