Dear friend,

I am writing to those who plan to attend the second annual National Conference of the Coalition on Political Assassinations this October 20-22. If you still need to send a registration fee for the conference, please do so now. Our rate is currently $225, or $250 at the door, and includes speakers, unless you are only attending your own session. The enclosed information includes highlights and events, as well as a full schedule for the weekend of events. The Omni Shoreham may be sold out for rooms, call 1-800-THE-OMNI, and ask for weekend or corporate rates if available. You can also try the nearby Washington Courtyard Marriott (202) 332-9300, or downtown Day's Inn in D.C. Other hotels in Pentagon City, Crystal City, Bethesda and Silver Springs are convenient to the Metro lines that stop at the Omni. Send your registration today. Extra dinner guests are $35 each, and day or session rates are available.

Due to the interest expressed again this year by people wanting to visit Archives II, we will be renting a bus to go there first thing Friday for a fee of $8-10 each way, depending on numbers. Working teams and tour guide included. If you already indicated interest, expect a more detailed letter on how to get a researcher's card, make document requests in advance, and procedures at Archives II. If you want to join this group, let us know now or at the registration desk.

If you feel we have left some major area of concern off the agenda, you can arrange for a sign-up sheet for an ad hoc meeting to be put out at the registration desk. Small groups (5-10) can meet at mealtime or in private rooms. Groups of 25-50 who express interest in a topic can be assigned to a limited amount of room space on Saturday or Sunday, but these events will be held at the same time as other major events in most cases. These meetings will also be announced daily.

The Assassination Archives and Research Center will hold an Open House on Friday, October 20, from 3:00-5:00 pm at its offices at 918 F. Street, NW, 5th floor, and registrants are welcome to attend for a $10 contribution.

As you may already know, the ASK Conference will not be held this year in Dallas. The Coalition is planning a meeting of our Working Panels and a fundraising speaker on November 21 at the Paramount Hotel, 302 South Houston Street, off Dealey Plaza. Call (214) 761-9090 mention COPA for special room rates ($59 single/$69) double. We will also be present on the Grassy Knoll on November 22, leading a moment of silence at 12:30.

All of this takes staff time, volunteers and funding. If you have not sent $35 annual membership to the Coalition this year, please consider doing so at this time as well. If you can spare to time to help out at the conference, please do. Thank you for your continued support, and we look forward to seeing you!

John Judge

John Judge,
for the Coalition.

October 20-22 - Washington, D.C.
Transportation and Hotel Information

Three major airports service Washington's metro area, DC National (DCN), Dulles International, and Baltimore/Washington International (B.W.I.). USAIR is still offering 10% discounts on 7-day advance fares from any point in the U.S. or Canada, and San Juan, Paris, or Frankfurt. Call 1-800-334-8644 and mention the Coalition conference and Gold File #36130078. West coast discounts are available from ASAP Travel for the conference, call 1-800-669-6818.

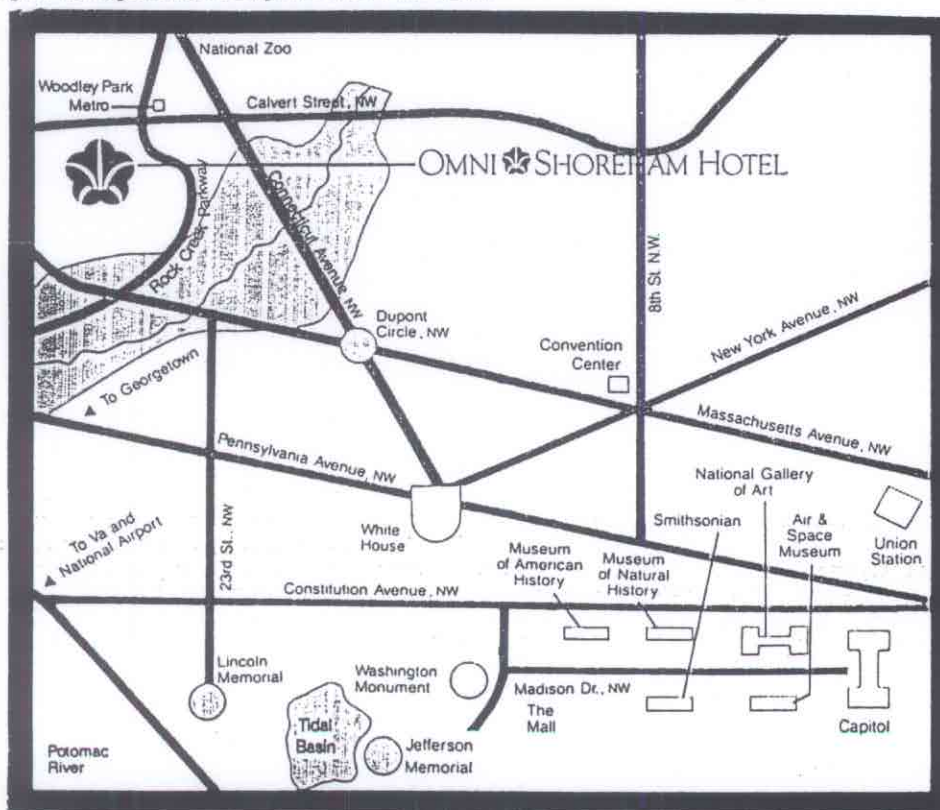

Local commuter trains and Amtrak trains serve Washington's beautiful Union Station, which is currently displaying a photographic tribute to Jackie Kennedy by the Leukemia Society. Amtrak has 10% discounts on their lowest round trip fares into Washington from any point in the U.S. or Canada. Call them at 1-800-USA-RAIL, and mention the Coalition conference and Fare Order Code X-73A-911. Taxi service to or from Union Station to the Shoreham is $7. Amtrak and MARC trains provide service to B.W.I. to and from Union Station ($5-10 each way), but not later than 9:30 or 10:00 pm.

Washington Flyer shuttles travel from DC National Airport ($8) and Dulles ($18) every half hour to the Omni Shoreham. Super Shuttle service is available from B.W.I. ($22). Dulles and B.W.I. are approximately one hour and fifteen minutes away, DC National is a half hour ride. Taxi to or from DAN. would be about $15.

A modern, efficient mass transportation system covers travel in Washington and surrounding areas called Metro. Fares are low ($1.10 each way outside rush hour). Several multi-color lines cover Virginia and Maryland suburbs, and points of interest in Washington. Dulles airport has local shuttle service to the West Falls Church stop on the Orange Line. The Omni sits just south of the Woodley Park/Zoo stop on the Red Line. Union Station is on the Red Line as well. DC National airport is on the Yellow Line. Another shuttle connects the Red Line to Archives II. All lines cross at Metro Center, allowing people to switch trains and directions easily. Metro stops running at midnight. Taxi service is available at reasonable rates inside D.C.

Access into DC is served by several major highways, including BW Expressway, I-95, Routes 1 and 66, and the 495 Beltway around the city. The Omni sits next to the Calvert Street exit off Rock Creek Parkway, just north of Rock Creek Park, at the intersection of Calvert and Connecticut Avenue. Connecticut runs all the way to the Beltway, and crosses Massachusetts Avenue, another major street in downtown D.C. Calvert Street marks the northern edge of Adams Morgan neighborhood. The National Zoo is nearby on Connecticut Avenue, as is the Sheraton Hotel, where we held last year's conference. Parking is $12 daily in commercial lots at or near the Omni, and is cheaper than D.C.'s parking ticket tax, risked by street and meter parking. Those not staying at the hotel, especially in Maryland or Virginia, are advised to park at their nearest Metro station and ride in for convenience.

Lost? Those having difficulty can call the Coalition's office before the conference begins, or try our Conference Hotline to get a listing for the registration desk phone line at the Omni.
