Dear Les,

At least one of those messages you never got was because I had heard from your anonymous source on the MK drug program of the CIA. I know who he is, could not do anything, and tried to give it to you.

I've spent a lot of time with this man and was satisfied he is for real before I phoned you. When you were ill and did not call back I spoke to a friend on the National Enquirer because I didn't know you would finally carry it and because there is more

If I haven't heard from the Enquirer by the end of the week, rather by the middle of next week, this being about the end and you being out sick, and he has not been in touch with you again, let me know if you want other leads.

As I've talked to this man I've formed a few opinions of my own. In fact I've bought the entire Olson file for him. As soon as it comes I'll send it to him. I have a notion it can mean things to him it might not to you and me.

There was another thing on my mind the other day. Jack was more than right to be cautious about what began with Greenspun and I presume Maheu. The 9/16/63 story from Cuba about an alleged Castro speech at the Brazilian Embassy is a fake. I've not only got the proof but had it in a book I could not get printed in 1968. It is a deliberate fabrication by those who did them wholesale.

Before the Olson story broke I spotted what would, inevitably, have led to it. In fact, I couldn't sell the Enquirer that one but they paid me $300 for what I did give them, this CIA document on mind-bending techniques. It had a dead giveaway in it, a little carelessness I happened not to miss.

Come to think of it there were two documents. The other was on Russian assassination techniques.

The ground floor doesn't do much good if you can't use it.

As soon as Jim Lesar gets time I'm going to sue the CIA. Not only for the withheld files on me. I've just notified them that I will unless they stop playing games. I've got much more than they've given me and I'll be surprised if I can't come up with at least a half-dozen files they have not checked. This case will do some exposing. I wrote part of it two years ago and it hasn't come out yet. I've had some for at least eight years.

Reminds me, I've more on domestic activity. I floated this to the Enquirer a few days ago. If they don't go for it my days are too restricted now. I have to sleep for the first time in my life and I've written most of a book in the past month. So, if you are interested, let me know.

Guess I ought to tell you, there is another in the MK cryptonym series. Maybe your digging will do some good if you are willing to put someone on it. Your sources didn't tell you all.

Hope you get well soon.

Best,
