LEVEL 1 - 14 OF 77 STORIES

Copyright 1993 Reuters, Limited
The Reuter Library Report

June 17, 1993, Thursday, BC cycle

LENGTH: 957 words

HEADLINE: FBI URGES RECOVERING CONNALLY BULLET PIECES

DATELINE: WASHINGTON, June 17

KEYWORD: -USA- CONNALLY

BODY:

The FBI said on Thursday it would be worth trying to recover bullet fragments from the body of the late Texas Governor John Connally in an attempt to shed new light, the Connally family was to be contacted for its

But they were unable to say if the contacts had been made or the outcome. If the family objected there would be no known way to force retrieval of the The Reuter Library Report, June 17, 1993 bullet fragments.

ble to resolve the controversy as to whether President Kennedy was assassinated as the result of a conspiracy.

The group does not believe that Kennedy was killed by Lee Harvey Oswald acting alone, as the special commission chaired by Earl Warren, the former Chief Justice of the United States, found in 1964. The Warren Commission said one bullet hit both men before Kennedy was killed by another shot.

Support for retrieving the bullet fragments came from Oliver Revell, the agent who runs the FBI's Dallas office, which is responsible for the Kennedy assassination case.

Marjorie Poche, an agent in the Dallas office, said Revell will recommend to Washington that U.S. government officials approach Connally's relatives and request an autopsy to put the controversy to rest.

''There's probably nothing surprising that will come from looking at the fragments from what the prior investigations have shown,'' she quoted Revel a1298 reute r w AM- CONNALLY-BULLET 06-17 0401 AM- CONNALLY-BULLET 1STLD@

The Reuter Library Report, June 17, 1993

^FBI URGES RECOVERING CONNALLY BULLET PIECES@

WASHINGTON, Reuter - The FBI said Thursday it would be worth trying to recover bullet fragments from the body of late Texas Gov. John Connally in an attempt to shed new light on President John Kennedy's assassination.

The question to be resolved is whether a second gun was involved.

Connally was wounded while riding with Kennedy in a motorcade when the president was shot and kil Janet Reno and other department officials, the Connally family was to be contacted for its views.

of the bullet fragments.

The request to retrieve the fragments came in a one-page letter to Reno from a non-profit group called the Assassination Archives and Research Center, which wanted immediate action.

It claimed that tests of the fragments ''may be able to resolve the controversy as to whether President Kennedy was assassinated as the result of The Reuter Library Report, June 17, 1993 a conspiracy.''

The group does not believe that Kennedy was killed by Lee Harvey Oswald acting alone, as the special commission chaired by Earl Warren, the former Chief Justice of the United States, found in 1964. The Warren Commission said one bullet hit both men before Kennedy was killed by another shot.

Support for retrieving the bullet fragments came from Oliver Revell, the agent who runs the FBI's Dallas office, which is responsible for the Kennedy assassination case.

Marjorie Poche, special agent in the Dallas office, said Revell will recommend to Washington that U.S. government officials approach Connally's relatives and request an autopsy to put the controversy to rest.

''There's probably nothing surprising that will come from looking at the fragments from what the prior investigations have shown,'' she quoted Revell as saying. ''It would quell the voices speculating there was more than one bullet. ''

In Austin, Julian Read, a family spokesman and longtime friend of Connally who served as a pa a1299LBY917 reulb r f BC-MARKETS 06-17 0409 ^BC-MARKETS@

The Reuter Library Report, June 17, 1993

^STOCKS, DOLLAR RISE DESPITE TRADE NEWS@ By David Morgan

NEW YORK, June 17, Reuter - Stocks and the dollar closed higher on Thursday despite the biggest monthly U.S. trade gap in changed in quiet trading.

Gold edged higher, with the August futures contract rising 70 cents to $372.20 an ounce on New York's Commodity Exchange. The most-active July oil contract slipped 14 cents to $18.70 a barrel on the New York Mercantile Exchange.

The Dow Jones industrial average rose 10.24 points to end at 3,521.89. In the broad market, advancing issues nudged out declines 984 to 890 on New York Stock Exchange volume of 230 million shares.

'The market is essentially directionless,' said Thom Brown, managing director at Rutherford, Brown & Catherwood.

The Commerce Department said early in the day that the U.S. merchandise trade deficit widened to $10.49 billion, its highest level in 4 years, from a reva $508 billion, five-year plan that they said leans more heavily on spending