

Contemporary Authors

Dear Author:

We are writing to invite you to add your biographical data to that of other current authors (all published by reputable commercial houses or university presses) whose qualifications and achievements have already been recorded in our annual CONTEMPORARY AUTHORS series.

Your detailed, carefully-done entry in CA will make it possible for your associates, editors, reviewers, librarians, researchers, and just plain users and lovers of books to have information about you promptly, when they (and you) can benefit from it most.

CA is NOT just another "biography book"--loaded with abbreviations and compiled on the basis of arbitrary regulations. A fellow author has called it "a wonderful job," and one user echoes many when he says, "we're terribly grateful for its existence." It is unlike anything you have ever been asked to provide information for before.

The total number of bio-bibliographies in print is now over 25,000, making CONTEMPORARY AUTHORS by far the largest, and we think the best, single source of biographical information about today's authors. We believe, that upon reflection, you will agree inclusion of your own record would also be advantageous.

The enclosed personal information form has been carefully prepared and tested to assure that it will be easy for you to complete with a minimum of effort and, at the same time, provide essential information we know is wanted. If you have a succinct resume which gives most of the requested information, simply attach the resume and fill in only those parts of the CA questionnaire not covered in your prepared material. (Please do not ask us to take your data from copyrighted sources, however.) If you have a bibliography of your books already prepared, it may be appended, also--but please be certain it includes titles, publication dates, and publishers' names (all three items) for each original publication of all your books.

We hope we can look forward to hearing from you shortly.

Sincerely yours,

Clare D. Kinsman Mary Ann Tennenhouse
