Ruby Is Quoted As Acting on Impulse Alone

Washi

THE EVENING STAR

and the second second

D-4

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP).— Jack Ruby has been quoted from purported actual word-byword testimony before the Warren Commission as insisting he killed Lee Harvey Oswald on the spur of the moment last November 24.

In a copyrighted story yesterday by New York Journal-American columnist Dorothy Kilgallen, Ruby is quoted as having told Chief Justice Earl Warren during interrogation last June 7:

"I was never malicious toward this person. No one else requested me to do anything. I never spoke to anyone about attempting to do anything. No subversive organization gave me any idea. No underworld persons made any effort to contact me.

and the second second

a de la companya de l

9

÷1,

"It all happened that Sunday morning."

Appeal Now Pending

Ruby, now 53, stepped out of a crowd of newsmen and onlookers in the basement of Dallas police headquarters on Sunday, November 23, and fired a single fatal bullet into Oswald, who had been formally charged as the assassin of President Kennedy two days earlier.

Condemned to death by a Dallas jury last March 14, Ruby now is held in the Dallas County jall pending an appeal of his conviction. Chief Justice Warren interviewed him there June 7.

Miss Kilgallen said in her story that she obtained the actual transcript of Mr. Warren's interview with Ruby "from sources close to the Warren Commission in Washington."

The report of the commission is expected to be published in mid-September.

Quotes Are Similar

The Dallas Times-Herald also published an article yesterday that it said quoted the testimony. Some of the quotes were the same as those in the Journal American stream sons made any effort to contact me.

"It all happened that Sunday morning."

Appeal Now Pending

Ruby, now 53, stepped out of a crowd of newsmen and on-lookers in the basement of Dal-las police beadquarters on Sun-day, November 23, and fired a single fatal bullet into Cawald, who had been formally charged as the assassin of President Kennedy two days earlier.

Condemned to death by a Dallas jury last March 14, Ruby now is held in the Dallas County jail pending an appeal of his conviction. Chief Justice War-ren interviewed him there June 7.

Miss Kilgallen said in her story that she obtained the actual transcript of Mr. War-ren's interview with Ruby "from sources close to the Warren Commission in Washington."

The report of the commission is expected to be published in mid-September.

Quotes Are Similar

and have been also and a station all

The Dallas Times-Herald also published an article yesterday that it said quoted the testi-mony. Some of the quotes were the same as those in the Journal-American story.

Most of the first installment of the Journal-American tranof the Journal-American tran-script covered the period from Mr. Kennedy's assassination November 22 to early the next morning. Ruby's account of his activities during that period tallied closely with testimony in-troduced at his trial. In the transcript which the

In the transcript which the Journal-American published with Miss Kilgallen's story, Ruby is quoted as telling Chief Justice Warren of that Friday night confrontation in Dallas po-liae headconstruct lice headquarters:

"There was a lot of questions thrown back and forth, and this District Attorney Henry Wade was answering them as best he could.

"From the time he started he "From the time he started he let the reporters know that this was the guilty one that com-mitted the crime. He specifi-cally stated that in that room, that he was the one. It didn't, have any effect on my mind, because whether the person had come out, whether he had come because whether the person had come out, whether he had come out openly and publicly stated didn't have any bearing in my mind, because I wasn't inter-ested in anything. All I knew, they had the prisoner." Ruby did not take the witness stand during his first degree murder trial in Dallas last winter. During the trial, chief defense attorney Melvin Belli sought to prove him insane and not legally responsible at the time of Oswald's slaying.

and the second second second

÷.

and the first of the second second second