Dear Jim.

Cole and his fellow dirtyworkers in the FBI are again palying games in the matter of how much money the FBI spent in the King assassination investigation.

To make it look as though the information requested had been provided they wrote on what he sent you that it is unrecorded between serials 5471 and 5472. (Incidentally, this also means that a 44-38861 record need not be filed as one, for this one is intended for that file in the typing and is indexed for MURKIN filing, but in fact it is in another and not disclosed main file, hence is Not Recorded in MURKIN.)

This record gives only a few and the most minor cash costs and not all of them. It gives meaningless figures for menhours but no cash costs for it, the most significant information. It omits car uses, official and unofficial, and the mileage, which it has. And as the second pages makes explicit, Mamphis knows the summary is limited by what had been sent to it by the field offices only.

At about the time of this record there was a boastful public statement that included what I seek, the overall costs, surely not a secret and surely information to which the clumtry should have access.

They have it. They have not provided it. But they pulled their usual disty stunt of making it appear that I already had what I seek.

Perhaps the reason is that they spent a fortune on a figitive investigation but never investigated the crime itself.

Perhaps also they want to assure that accurate writing is impossible.

Sincerely,

Date: 12/13/68
