Dear Mr. Courtright:

Thank you for your fine letter which was forwarded to me by Dell.
I appreciate it.

The Altgens picture is available from the Associated Press, 50
Rockefeller Center, but I do not know the price where it will not be reproduced.

I think you will find that the documents and chart, and probably the head charts, can be reproduced from the book by Xeroxing. All of the other pictures are available from the National Archives, Washington, D. C., if identified by exhibit number, for $1.50 each for 8x10 prints.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I am a high school student in Denver. In two weeks I am going to make my six weeks report on your book, WHITEWASH. I have read your book through many times, and continue to be fasinated by your arguments concerning the photographs taken at the time of the assassination of President Kennedy! My class has made investigations of other Commission critiques. None of these other books begins to compare with yours when discussions of phtographs are concerned.

I was wondering, is there any possible way I could get ahold of some of these prints? In all respect to you and your fine book, printing hasn't come far enough to compare with the quality one can get from a photographic print. If it would be possible COULD I PURCHASE SOME OF THESE PRINTS FROM YOU? I couldn't pay very much, but even one or two prints would help matters and be greatly appreciated. If you do not have these prints available, do you know of a place where I could get them?

I thank you for your time. PLEASE ANSWER, as I need to organize my report a little before I give it.

Thank you very much.
