Dear Mr. Weisberg,

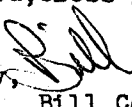

It was certainly a pleasure to speak to you on the phone yesterday. I hope we'll get to meet one of these days. As I told you, I am entertaining now, and travel around the country. I haven't gotten any farther east than Iowa so far, but it appears as tho I will be in New York sometime next month. My agent always tries to book me in a circuit when I go on the road, and I asked him to try his best to get me into Washington DC after my New York job is done. If he is able to do that, I would certainly enjoy seeing you.

I was very sorry to hear of your financial troubles. My God, it seems like everybody I know is going thru the same thing. I just learned that my best freind is losing his beautiful $50,000 home, here in Lakewood. I hope, more than you might realize that you have better luck with your new book. I feel very deeply that you deserve success in your endeavors to bring truth to the people. It is people like yourself who seem to finally get the respect and thanks from the people that they deserve long, long after that encouragement should have come.

Coincidentally, after our conversation yesterday, a freind who knows of my interest in the Kennedy assassination gave me a copy of the November issue of Esquire Magazine. I'm sure you are aware of the article there by Bernard Fensterwald Jr. in which ~~mf~~ he tells of your fight in the courts concerning the bullets involved in the assassination. Since this was the first I has heard of this, I would like to know how successful this has been. Also, he speaks of yet another organization involved with finding the truth behind the President's assassination. Don't any of these organizations offer help you, or do you not desire their assistande for one reason or another?

I sincerely wish there was something I could do. Please let me know if there is anything. God, bless you, and the very best of luck in your furture work.

Sincerely,

Bill Courtright
