Garrison uncovers new figure in JFK assassination

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 31 (AP) — Garrison today reopened a Federal investigation and for questioning of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Garrison, pastor of the Universal Life Church, was called to New Orleans by the Orleans Parish District Attorney on November 11. Garrison's office said that Crisman, "has been engaged in undercover activity for a part of the industrial warfare complex for years. His cover is that of a preacher and a person engaged in work to help the typical... Garrison's press statement continued: "Our information indicates that since the early 1960's Crisman has made many trips to the New Orleans and Dallas areas in connection with his undercover work. He is a former employee of the Boeing Aircraft Company in the sense that the defendant in the case is a former employee of Lockheed Aircraft Company in Los Angeles. In intelligence terminology, this ordinarily means that the connection still exists but that the former employee has moved into an underground operation. Garrison said that evidence has been developed indicating a relationship between Crisman and persons involved in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. He did not elaborate on what type of a relationship it was or with whom it was. Presumably Garrison is referring to Clay Shaw, who was accused of slaying President Kennedy. Garrison said that Shaw, a retired airman in the New Orleans International Trade Mart, is under indictment for that slaying. Garrison said murder. His attorneys have appealed a preliminary judicial ruling to the U.S. Supreme Court and have obtained a Federal court injunction against any further prosecution of their client. Garrison's radio representative for Dallas called Dr. Carl McIntire, a leading conservative religious leader, in Dallas. McIntire said that Garrison's investigation of President Kennedy was murdered by elements of the industrial warfare complex working in concert with individuals in the United States Government. At the time of his death, President Kennedy was in the middle of the Cold War. The income of the industrial warfare complex was well over a billion dollars a year and there were forces in that industry and in the U.S. Government...
