Industry 'Spy' Subpoenaed in Callahan Probe

District Attorney Jim Garrison today subpoenaed a Tacoma, Wash., man described as an "undercover agent" in his probe of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

A subpoena was issued for Fred Lee Crisman to appear before the Orleans Parish Grand Jury Nov. 11.

THE SUBPENA says Crisman has been engaged in undercover activity for a part of the past several years.

A copy of the subpoena was sent to Crisman at his home in New Orleans and Dallas in connection with undercover work for manufacturing companies.

Crisman's activities in the past several years have been described in a report by the Dallas office as involving evidence gathering and a relationship with the Dallas office.

government, which stopped the end of the Cold War.

The subpoena is the latest move in the investigation which began in November 1963. Thus far, two persons have been charged with conspiracy in the case, Clay Shaw and Edgar Bruce Bradley.

Shaw's lawyer, J. Lee Bradley, held up a writ of habeas corpus for an order enjoining Garrison from pursuing him.

Bradley yesterday in Los Angeles asked for and got a delay until Nov. 11 to file a writ of habeas corpus from California to force Garrison to return on a fugitive warrant.
