

MOST SECRET

John Dickson Carr

Set in 1670, in the reign of Charles II, this fast-moving and romantic mystery reflects John Dickson Carr's detailed knowledge and love of the period.

Here are royal intrigues, murder, a plot against the king, and piracy on the high seas, all centered on the beautiful blue ring young Roderick Kinsmere inherited from his father.

"The king and the court, the theater, the art, the London streets, the continuous intrigue, all glow with vivid coloration."
—DOROTHY B. HUGHES

"Mr. Carr has contrived a fine, adventurous entertainment of politics and piracy, espionage and murder."
—The Times

JOHN DICKSON CARR is the Anglo-American author of numerous mysteries, including The Demoniacs, published this season by Carroll & Graf, and Papa La-Bas, Deadly Hall, Dark of the Moon, Captain Cut-Throat, and others available from Carroll & Graf.

Mystery
0-88184-542-6
Mass Market
235 pages
$3.95
October

THE 92nd TIGER

Michael Gilbert

Fast and furious entertainment from one of the most stylish of mystery writers. The always urbane Michael Gilbert mixes an amusing story and fine plot with his characteristic touches of realism.

Hugo is the muscular hero of a television adventure series. His career is beginning to founder on the shoals of middle age when the Foreign Office calls. It seems the ruler of a tiny but oil-rich, and therefore most important, Arab kingdom needs a military adviser—and Hugo is it!

"Michael Gilbert makes a novelistic gimmick believable. He seems to know a great deal about the Near East and the minds of the men who live there. Escape reading at its best."
—The New York Times Book Review

"It is a bright and amusing thriller with some knowledgeable sidelights on the international arms trade."
—The Times

MICHAEL GILBERT, a Grand Master of the Mystery Writers of America, is also a noted English solicitor, and was Raymond Chandler's legal adviser. His many books include Smallbone Deceased, Game Without Rules, and Overdrive, the latter two available from Carroll & Graf.

Mystery
0-88184-545-0
Mass Market
212 pages
$3.95
October

14 CARROLL & GRAF OCTOBER

CROSSFIRE:

The Plot that Killed Kennedy

Jim Marrs

Jim Marrs, a veteran journalist, here pulls together for the first time all the available facts concerning that tragic day in November 1963. Marrs has spoken at length with key figures and numerous police, government and news media officials involved in the case. Now, after more than 20 years, he sifts through theories and rumors to give a clear and concise overview of what really happened, including new and fascinating evidence on Lee Harvey Oswald's political background.

Backed up by abundant photos, Marrs examines first the "kill zone" (the motorcade, the Texas Book Repository, the Grassy Knoll) before going on to discuss "means, motives and opportunities." These include disturbing connections with the FBI, CIA, the Mafia, the Cubans and the American military among others. New light is also shed on J. Edgar Hoover's close friendship with Lyndon Johnson and the latter's unpredictable behavior after the assassination. Then the author evaluates the Warren Commission findings and contrasts them with the House Select Committee on Assassinations which boldly refuted the lone gunman theory. Marrs also explores the "convenient deaths" after the killing, deaths which few Americans know about.

The facts and photographic evidence presented in this startling book make it a necessary addition to the library of anyone with the slightest interest in learning what actually happened in Dallas at a time when Americans in large numbers began to be openly cynical about their government's respect for the truth. Crossfire is a disturbing book which—by its very thoroughness—questions and provides answers to crucial aspects of the crime that have long been taken for granted.

JIM MARRS teaches an assassination course at the University of Texas. He is also an award-winning freelance author, photographer and script writer.

National Advertising	Coop Available	Author Tour
----------------------	----------------	-------------

Photo section
History
0-88184-524-8
Cloth
608 pages
$24.95
November

NOVEMBER CARROLL & GRAF 15

