Truitt on Move

KEY WEST, Fla. — Alben Truitt, a grandson of the late Vice President Alben Barkley who hijacked a private plane to Havana last October, was reported to have left Cuba and arrived in Canada.

have left Cuba and arrived in Canada.

The Key West Citizen reported that Truitt had telephoned his wife Allison in Key West and told her he had gone to Canada by ship. He also told her he had been in jail in Cuba and was appalled by the conditions in the country.
